The County Convention To-Day.

We trust the delegates in the Republican County Convention, which meets to-day, will remember that they are white men and Republicans—not factionists, nor short-boys. At a late hour last evening all sorts of absurd rumors were circulating and obtaining credence—that the retainers of this candidate were bound to choke down the adherents of that candidate, monopolize the county delegation, and in effect disfranchise one-third or two-fifths of the Convention—whereas the supporters of the latter had got their blood "up" and would resort to any measures necessary to defeat the purpose of their opponents.

Now, we are constrained to say we acquit [illegible] two candidates for Congress of any acquiescence in plans likely to turn a Republican Convention into a Tammany Hall mob; and we are equally constrained to tell the excited friends of the principals, that if they wish to disgrace themselves, disgrace their party, and secure the privilege of being left out of future Conventions, they can kill all these birds with one stone, by carrying out their respective programmes to day. We would say to the one side that minorities have some rights which white men are bound to respect, and to the other that splitting a Convention is exactly the thing which the integrity of the party will not suffer them to do. We do not assert that either of these movements are in contemplation, but we happen to know that both were the topics of too free discussion last night after the adjournment of a couple of caucuses.

Before and After the Speech.

If the admirers of Judge Douglas think that all, or a majority, of the crowd that went to see him last Friday night, are going to support him at the polls, they are hugging a huge delusion. Hundreds went there with friendly feelings, who left chagrined and sorrowful. His opposition to the Lecompton bill made them think that he had progressed in a freesoil direction; but when they heard him declare that he swallowed the Dred Scott doctrine, with all its pro-slavery enormities, their expectations were wilted, their feelings were wounded, and they turned away, more in sorrow than in anger. They had hoped for better things and were sadly disappointed, when they found he had nothing better to offer to them than his Cincinnati platform, his Dred Scott decision, and his Squatter Sovereignty exploded humbug; and thousands of that crowd were indignant when they heard him utter his shameful misrepresentations of Lincoln's position. We repeat the remark that is in everybody's mouth, that Judge Douglas left the balcony of the Tremont House with vastly fewer friends than when he made his salutatory bow.

Lincoln and Douglas.

It was conceded yesterday, by nine men out of every ten that Lincoln demolished Douglas; that he "knocked him higher than a kite." No candid, intelligent man or woman, who read the two speeches can help admitting that Lincoln overthrew every position assumed by Douglas; that he completely exposed his sophistries and pulverized his arguments. If a jury should be empannelled to-day composed of the first twelve intelligent men met on the streets, and if put on their oaths, they would decide unanimously, in ten minutes after hearing both speeches read, that Lincoln had the best of the argument; that he beat Douglas, and beat him badly. If any of the little giant's friends doubt this statement, they can be convinced by asking the private and candid opinion of the first score or hundred men of common sense they may meet on the streets.

Second Congressional District.

The Dupage County Republican Convention was held at Wheaton, yesterday. John Glos, F. H. Mather, L. P. Sedgwick, T. W. Smith, and Walter Blanchard were elected delegates to the Congressional Convention. Resolutions were adopted in favor of Hon. J. F. Farnsworth.

The Cook County Convention meets to-day at 2 o'clock P. M., at the Court House, in the old Council Room.

Later From Utah.

The telegraph brings advices from Salt Lake Valley to the 19th ult. Brigham Young had returned to Salt Lake City and held a conference with Gov. Cumming and the Peace Commissioners, and it is reported that a treaty of peace has been concluded. The intentions of the Mormons, however, were still veiled in mystery. Colonel Johnston was on the mrrch for Salt Lake City.

Fire in Davenport.

On Sunday night, between 11 and 12 o'clock, the four story brick building on the corner of Third and Perry street was destroyed by fire. In the upper stories was a public hall, law and other offices, the rooms of the Chess Club and a private school. The main floor was occupied by F. Jacoby, Jr., as a drug store and by Mr. [illegible]utton as a dry goods store. The loss and damage is not far from $30,000. We have no further particulars.

Robbery at Beloit.

We are informed by the Beloit Journal that Messrs. Wright & Newcomb, book and paper dealers in that city, were robbed last week of $1,500 by a dishonest clerk. The Journal says:

> They had recently employed a new book-keeper, a man named Williams, about forty-five or fifty years of age. He came to them highly recommended for honesty and integrity by his former employers in Chicago. On Tuesday about noon he left the store to go to dinner, as was supposed. Upon returning from the cars with the express matter, another clerk told Mr. Wright that Williams had left in the cars. Upon looking into the safe, Mr. Wright found that $1,500 had been taken therefrom. Sheriff Wright and Mr. Newcomb immediately started in pursuit of the scoundrel, but no trace of him has yet been found.

Late Nominations.

IOWA.—The Democrats of the First Congressional District have nominated Mr. H. H. Trimble, of Davis county, as their candidate for Congress. There were nine candidates for the nomination, but Mr. Trimble was nominated on the first regular ballot.

The Republican Convention of the Seventh Judicial District nominated John F. Dillon, of Davenport, for Judge, and Henry O'Connor, of Muscatine, for District Attorney.

PENNSYLVANIA.—Hon. A. H. Reeder, ex-Governor of Kansas, will probably be the Anti-Lecompton candidate in the Thirteenth Congressional District, Pa. This is called the "tenth legion of Democracy," in that State, and is the hardest district in the State. It gave Pierce [illegible],429 majority, and Buchanan a majority of [illegible],160 over both Fremont and Fillmore.

INDIANA.—The Congressional nominations in Indiana, so far as reported, are as follows:

First District—Alvin P. Hovey, of Posey; Anti-Lecompton.

Third—William McKee Dunn, of Jefferson; Rep. W. Carr, of Jackson; Anti-Lecompton Dem.

Eighth—James Wilson, of Montgomery; Rep.

Ninth—Schuyler Colfax, of St. Joseph; Rep.

Eleventh—John U. Pettit, of Wabash, Rep.

New York Bank Statement.

The following is a summary of the last New York Bank Statement, as furnished by yesterday's dispatch:

Decrease loans	$348,470
Increase specie	675,361
Increase circulation	13,183
Decrease in deposits	373,487
Total specie	$34,105,593

☞ Canadian papers announce the death of the Hon. Wm. Morris, at the age of 72. He was formerly Receiver-General of the Province, and later, President of the Executive Council.

The Revolution in St. Domingo.

NEW YORK, July 12.—By the arrival of the British brig John Butler, Capt. Park, we have papers from Santiago, Delos, Cabelleras and San Domingo to June 23d. They confirm advices already received that the revolution had ended, and the city of San Domingo had unconditionally surrendered to the legitimate authority of the country. Baez had left the Island, and the army of Santa Anna had, with great rejoicing, entered the city. The papers are full of the official documents, but contain no additional particulars of interest.

Ohio Republican Convention.

COLUMBUS, July 12.—A large number of delegates to the Republican Convention to-morrow are already in. Prospect of a full attendance.

THE CITY.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Cook County Republican Convention meets at the Court House, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, for the purpose of selecting thirty delegates to attend the Republican Congressional Convention which meets at Dixon.

TENTH WARD DELEGATES.—An error occurred in giving the names of the 10th Ward delegates to the County Convention. The following is a correct list:—S. Rugg, Jacob Matt, John Lobstein, Chas. Reitz, F. Schilling, D. F. Wilson, H. Kempf.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PIC-NIC.—The Indiana Street M. E. Sunday School will hold a Pic Nic in Hyde Park to-day. An extra train will leave the Central Depot at 9 o'clock A. M., carrying the excursionists to the ground. Tickets can be procured at the cars.

☞ We see by the Democrat that Andrews, No 67 Clark street, has demised but Ed. Osband, under the Tremont, is alive yet and on hand with New York dailies of Saturday, Flag, Mercury, Ballou, Novelette, and all weeklies due. Give him a call.

☞ O'Hara's Drug Store, at the corner of Canal and Randolph streets, West side, is the place for sparkling Soda, with pure syrups. Mr. O'H. also keeps excellent Havana Cigars, an article difficult to obtain elsewhere on that side of the river.

UNION EXPRESS COMPANY.—We regret to learn that the Union Express Company is, by those who do not stop to think, confounded with a concern called the Union Dispatch Company, the managers here of which were arrested a short time since. The Union Express Company has a capital of $150,000 and is under the management of competent and honorable business men, and is engaged in the quick transportation of light and heavy goods by railroad. The business public will, we hope, remember the distinction between the names.

PLEASURE EXCURSION TO LAKE SUPERIOR.—The steamer Planet, one of the largest, if not the largest, steamers on the upper Lakes, is to take the place of the Lady Elgin in the Lake Superior Line, and will leave this port on Wednesday evening for Superior City. The Planet is elegantly furnished and fitted up, is comparatively a new boat, and has always been a favorite with the traveling public and with excursionists. She will stop at Mackinac for a day, in order that her passengers may have an opportunity of visiting the many interesting places on this island. Persons going east can, by taking the Planet on Wednesday evening, go by the favorite and delightful Collingwood route to Buffalo or Oswego. See advertisement.

THE ASSOCIATED CONGRESS AND JUDGE DOUGLAS.—Yesterday forenoon, about half past ten o'clock, the members of a debating society in this city, known as the "Associated Congress," visited Judge Douglas at the Tremont House. The members marched to the hotel in procession, and were received by Mr. Douglas in the Ladies' Parlor. Mr. T. B. Taylor, in behalf of the Congress, made a handsome and appropriate address to Mr. Douglas, and the latter responded in a felicitious manner. The members were then introduced to the Senator, and the affair ended much to the gratification of all concerned. Quite a number of ladies were present on the occasion.

The "Congress" now consists of about one hundred members and is divided into a Senate and House of Representatives. Its business and debates are governed by the same rules as those adopted by the Congress of the United States. The following is the list of newly elected officers:

Executive Officers—Col. James Speed, President; Edward T. Ingraham, Vice-President; O. B. Maple, Secretary; Dr. L. C. Blake, Treasurer.

Officers of the Senate—E. T. Ingraham, President; Geo. R. H. Hughes, Secretary; Charles F. Britton, Serjeant-at Arms.

Officers of the House—James M. Smith, Speaker; Charles L. Tucker, Clerk; P. B. Manchester, Sergeant at-Arms.

THE HOME FOR THE FRIENDLESS.—The Second Annual Meeting of this Association was held in the Lecture Room of the Second Presbyterian Church on Saturday last, for the election of officers and other business. The following officers were elected:

President—Mark Skinner.
Vice President—D. J. Lake.
Secretary—E. F. Dickinson.
Treasurer—I. H. Burch.

The old Trustees were re-elected; also the old Board of Directors.

The fifth article of the Constitution, providing for nine Directors, was, by a unanimous vote, so amended as to add to the Board twelve ladies, chosen at large, and one from each of the churches co-operating.

The following twelve ladies were then elected to the Board:

Mrs. G. A. Gibbs,	Mrs. G. M. Higginson,
" Wm. H. Brown,	" — Morris,
" E. Varian,	" J. C. Haines,
" C. Morgan,	" J. Larmon,
" L. Beecher,	" J. K. Bottsford,
" E. Wadsworth,	Miss Julia Rossiter.

The election of a part of the representatives in the Board from the churches, was postponed to the next meeting.

A report was made by a Committee, appointed at the last annual meeting, upon the subject of Location and a lot for the Home, reported that Wm. S. Johnston, Esq., of Cincinnati, had generously donated a lot on the North Side or on the West Side, if preferred, or the avails of either if some other location should be deemed more desirable.

The Committee also reported that Charles Follansbee, Esq., had offered to donate half the value of a much larger lot near Bull's Head.

The report was accepted and laid on the table for future action.

The meeting deemed it inexpedient to undertake the erection of a permanent house during the present season; but practicable, and imperatively necessary, to open the Home immediately with temporary and limited accommodations, for the classes for whom the Association proposes relief, such as destitute and deserving women and children, until other and permanent homes and means of support can be secured to them, either in the city or country.

Nearly fifty persons, principally ladies, enrolled their names, by the payment of one dollar each, and resolved themselves into a committee to solicit at least one thousand more ladies to do the same.

A committee was also appointed to solicit articles of furniture for the Home; also a committee to inquire after a suitable house for a temporary Home, to report at next meeting.

The Association then adjourned, to meet in the lecture room of the First Baptist Church, on Thursday next—July 15th, at 3 o'clock P. M.

The resolves of the meeting, and the enthusiasm manifested, give grounds of confident hope that the homeless and needy are no longer to be forgotten. E. F. DICKINSON, Sec'y.

Temperance Meeting.

The last of the Union Sunday Afternoon Temperance Meetings was held at St. Paul's Church, and was attended by a large audience. Addresses were made by Rev. T. M. Eddy, Rev. W. W. King, Gen. Riley and Col. Hammond. The following is a brief synopsis of the remarks of the latter gentleman:

Mr. Hammond said: I am not in the habit of addressing public assemblages, but the subject under discussion has engaged more of my attention than have most of the other moral enterprises of the day, and although there are others present whose profession is to speak upon such occasions, I will venture to detain you for a few moments as my name has been announced as one of the speakers for to-day.

After adverting to the important eras of the temperance reform; the old battles of thirty years ago by Dr. Beecher and others, who commenced the warfare under the anti-ardent spirit pledge; the contests of Delevan and his compeers under the total abstinence banner; and the Washingtonian and secret society crusade—Mr. Hammond would like to inquire, "What is the basis of the evil in our day?" Is it not that public opinion, does not condemn the effects of drinking except in cases of perceptible intoxication, when we know that liquor is of no use whatever in any quantity whatever to a person in health? When we know, that if a person has any liquor at all in him, he is in that proportion drunk? It is this tampering with principle, this letting down of our standard of total abstinence, that now palsies our efforts, and has caused the car of temperance to retrograde.

How my heart is pained, as I walk the streets of Chicago and behold the young men of our city falling upon every side! If there is to my eyes a lovely sight upon this earth, it is that of a pure young man. When I see such an one, who has preserved himself uncontaminated from the vices and temptations of the day, I feel like throwing my arms around his neck, and bidding him God speed in his upward and onward course. And then to have these young men, the flower of our city, the hope of our land, dragged down as they are into these sinks of rum and pollution and robbed of their reputation, their moral purity, their high hopes of the future, it seems too cruel for such a sight to be forced daily upon us. Many, very many, are thus being lost, but I thank God there are many whom I know have been saved; and I feel encouraged to labor on for the good of the young men of our city and land.

And who is responsible for the grog-shop temptations of this city? We authorize our Mayor to license these shops to do that which is not only useless, but a positive curse. And what reason is given by the friends of license for the sanction thus given by law to the traffic? Simply this: the granting of license brings a revenue into the city treasury. Let us suppose a law in force, requiring not only a payment of money into the treasury for the privilege of selling, but requiring the City Comptroller to pay all damages resulting from such sale. Supposing Mr. Ward should be required, at 12 o'clock each day, to pay all damages resulting from the use of liquor during the preceding twenty-four hours, would it then be a source of revenue? When he had paid the damages for loss of time, loss of property, loss of reputation, paid the damages for the abuse of the wife by the brutal husband, the neglect of the children, the misery of ruined homes, of pauperism, of crime, of murder, when damages resulting from the use of intoxicating drinks, had to be paid for by the city but for one short month, the city would be bankrupt! And yet these damages must be paid by taxes, the contributions of the benevolent, or by the personal surrender of the victims to disgrace and the grave. But let the city assume the responsibility, and for every dollar you receive into your treasury for license, you will pay out thousands for damages, and then never cover all the curse!"

The above is a mere outline of one of the most practical speeches of the day. It should have been heard by every citizen of Chicago.

VERBATIM REPORTING.—We have neglected to state that the verbatim reports of the speeches recently made in this city by Hon. Abraham Lincoln and Judge Douglas, were reported expressly for the PRESS AND TRIBUNE by Mr. R. R. Hitt, a phonographic writer of no little reputation, and the satisfaction expressed by both the speakers at the accuracy with which he accomplished his tasks, were gratifying to him, as an evidence of his skill and competency in his profession.

We have determined to introduce a new style of journalism in this city, in respect to the publication of important speeches and addresses in the issue next following their delivery; and with this view have secured Mr. Hitt's professional services, exclusively for this paper. The expense of this is, as may readily be supposed, not inconsiderable; but we look for our repayment to a public which seldom fails to reward useful enterprise.

ROW IN A BEER GARDEN.—On last Sunday afternoon a fracas occurred in the German Garden, north of the city, in which decanters, tumblers and chairs were thrown at numerous heads. Quite a number of persons were engaged in the fracas but nobody was very seriously hurt. We could not learn the names of the participants, and no arrests have been made.

POLICE.

SWINDLING—William Brandt, a bar-keeper in a saloon in Michigan avenue, was brought up for passing a worthless shin-plaster upon a Norwegian immigrant. The bill was given in exchange for a gold piece. As the offence was not one within the reach of the criminal law, Brandt was discharged and the immigrant advised to sue out a capias for the accused.

NO LIGHTS.—John Bingham, a hackman, was fined $5 for driving without lights.

GAMBLING DEN BROKEN UP.—On Sunday afternoon, between 5 and 6 o'clock, the police made a descent upon a negro gambling den in Harrison street, just east of Wells street. The house was filled at the time, and when the police arrived, the inmates jumped from the windows and fled in every direction. A number made their escape, but the following were caught: Anthony Merrick, keeper; Thomas Vivian, Henry Johnson, George Robinson, Thomas Scott, Silas Johnson, Mark Lee, Wm. Moore, Jos. Hansen, Wesley Hall, George Clay, Rob't Goodloe, Chas. Bailey, Thomas Wilson, and Rose Fisher, alias Maggie Morse. Merrick was fined $25 and 30 days in the Bridewell; Geo. Clay $10, and the others, with the exception of Rose Fisher, who was discharged and used as a witness, were fined $5 each. This house was formerly kept by two women known as Big Lize and Indian Sal. It had been closed for some time until two weeks ago, when Merrick and a negro named Stuart opened it again. Lize and Sal went to Prairie du Chien and opened a den there, which so disgusted the people that they shaved the women's heads, tarred and feathered them, and sent them down the river on a raft, since which time they have not been heard from.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.—John Shaw was fined $5 for getting drunk, pushing a lady down on the sidewalk, and striking a child. The performance came off in Madison street.

Furlow O'Neil, one of Uncle Sam's infants, was fined $1. When asked if he was disorderly as well as drunk, he replied that "he never saw a drunken man who was not disorderly."

Ole Jacobs got drunk and abused his family. He refuses to work, and made his wife give him $3 of her hard earnings, with which he purchased rum. He was fined $30, and sent 90 days to Bridewell.

H. Butler, who was released from Bridewell ten days ago, and who positively refuses to earn a stiver, was complained of by his own son for getting drunk and abusing his family. He was fined $20 and sent 30 days to Bridewell.

Francis Massel was fined $1 and sent 5 days to Bridewell, for making a disturbance in his family.

Mary Donnahue and Ellen Morrison, a couple of street walkers, were brought up for getting into a street fight with some sailors. Mary was fined $5 and 20 days in Bridewell, and Ellen $10 and 30 days. They are just out of Bridewell.

G. Proper was found drunk in the street and arrested, whereupon he commenced hollowing "Watch." He excused himself to the Court by saying that he thought the officer was an acquaintance of his who was going to beat him. He paid a fine of $3.

Peter Conley was fined $10 and Chas. Harvey $5, for being caught out late at night under suspicious circumstances. Conley is a painter, and works for Mr. Morgan.

Francis Scott, an old customer at the Police Court, was fined $10 for being drunk. When brought to the "lock-up" he was so violent that it was necessary to iron him.

James McDonald and James A. Bennett, a couple of followers of Rice's circus, were fined $5 each for trying to compel a saloon keeper to open his door at 1 o'clock in the morning and treat them.

John Francis, alias Luke Summerfield, who has respectable relatives in the city, was fined $10 for abusing a cyprian known as Shanghai Lib, at a house of ill-fame kept by Mrs. Dingman, in Wells street.

Lawrence Carlin was simply too drunk to walk, and was let off with a fine of $2.

Charles Artel got drunk and created a disturbance in Fulton avenue, for which he was fined $5.

James F. Allen, an ugly brute, was fined $10 for beating his wife and threatening to shoot and stab his son-in-law.

James Slattery made a row in his own house and assaulted the officer who arrested him, for which bit of fun he was fined $10.

William Clifford, a blacksmith, was found sleeping in a carriage in Franklin street. He was fined $5.

Henry Jones, George Swarnton and Joseph Hazlitt, three hard-looking youngsters who were just up from St. Louis, were found sleeping in a barn on West Lake street, on Sunday night. Swarnton has been in the workhouse in St. Louis. They were fined $3 each, and in default of payment went to Bridewell.

John Graham, a stevedore, was fined $10 for assaulting the private watchman of a lumber yard, in Market street.

George W. Gavitt got drunk and made a row among his neighbors, for which sport he was fined $3.

VAGRANTS.—Mrs. Martin and John Rankin, old vagrants, were fined $3 each, and William Dunlap, a like customer, $10 and 30 days in Bridewell.

INCORRIGIBLE YOUTH.—Patrick Connerford, aged seventeen years, was sent to the Reform School some time ago for disorderly conduct. Since his confinement there he has successfully resisted every attempt to bring him into subjection to the rules of the school, and about a week ago the Board of Guardians determined to send him back to the Police Court. The Superintendent states that for two weeks he was compelled to keep a strict watch over him to prevent his carrying into execution a threat to burn the buildings. Three or four days ago he escaped from the school by jumping out of a window and taking to his heels. Yesterday he was arrested, taken before Justice Aiken, in the Police Court, and fined $100. In default of payment he was sent to Bridewell, where, it is to be hoped, he will be taught to appreciate to the full the disadvantage of his change from the Reform School. When arrested he had three loaded dice in his possession.

PICKPOCKETS.—At the Douglas oration on Friday night, Mr. Isaac Dike had his pocket picked of a wallet containing $2 in money, some receipts, and his safe key.

CLOTHING THIEF.—George Walker was arrested yesterday by officer Asa Williams, upon a charge of stealing $150 worth of clothing, from James Carroll. The clothing was taken from the tug boat Chase. Waller will have an examination to-day.

DISCHARGED.—Owen McClosky, Patrick Coogan and John Fagan, arrested upon a charge of passing counterfeit money, have been discharged from custody—the evidence not warranting their being held for trial.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

☞ Citrate of Magnesia—an invaluable remedy for biliousness, headache, &c. For sale by the dozen or single bottle at Kollock's new drug store, corner of State and Washington streets.

☞ At the present season, when stimulants are at times demanded from our peculiar climate, it is a great desideratum to know where a fine, unadulterated article of Wines and Liquors can be obtained. Thomas B. Davis, 46 Dearborn street, has on hand a large stock of wines and liquors of every description, put up expressly for family use, and guaranteed to be as perfectly free from all deleterious compounds as when taken from the Custom House. Give David a call, or send your orders through the Post Office. They will be filled precisely as though the purchaser was personally present.

☞ Read what the New Orleans Delta of February 28th, 1858, says of Dr. James, of 82 Custom House street, New Orleans, La.:

"WHY IS IT?—Hundreds of persons have, from time to time, inquired of us the reason why it was that our friend and physician, Dr. James, No. 82 Custom-House street, had gained such astonishing celebrity in his profession. We were, of course, somewhat surprised at such interrogatories, but accounted for it from the fact that the most of them were comparative strangers in our city. We, therefore, took special occasion to explain to them that the doctor having applied himself assiduously, for years, for the purpose of thoroughly perfecting himself in one particular branch, had succeeded beyond even his own expectations, and was now, by an extensive practice, enjoying the fruits of his long and studious application, in the cure of those special diseases which he advertises to treat."

KENOSHA WATER CURE.

THIS INSTITUTION IS FOUNDED UPON the principle of using "Nature's Remedies" in the cure of disease, and so instructing patients in their use that they may not only regain but maintain health.

The location of the CURE is eminently adapted for the purpose, being situated in one of the most pleasant cities of the West, which for health, pure air and water, cannot be surpassed.

Our Rooms and Bathing conveniences are well arranged for the comfort of Patients, and no pains will be spared to make their stay agreeable.

A Gymnasium and Bowling Alley are in connection with the Institution.

We would call the attention of the afflicted to a new remedy, the

Electro Chemical Baths,

Which we have introduced into this CURE. By the use of these Baths, all extraneous minerals (as mercury, lead, &c.,) are extracted from the system, and some of the most distressing maladies that humanity is subject to are entirely cured, such as Scrofula, Rheumatism, Paralysis, Ulcers, Neuralgia, and Nervous diseases generally. Persons who have worked in Paints, or taken mercury or mineral medicine of any kind, will do well to test these Baths.

The terms of this Institution are $6 to $9 per week—payable weekly.

Invalids will bring six crash towels, two cotton or linen sheets, a flannel blanket and two comfortables.

Those desiring home treatment will inclose $3 to H. T. SEELEY, M. D. Physician, E. PENNOYER, Proprietor. je15-3m:a34-d&w

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Troops for Utah—Later from Salt Lake City—St. Louis Republican.

ST. LOUIS, July 12th.—The St. Joseph Gazette, of the 8th, in noticing the arrival of the Utah mails, says General Harney is encamped just beyond Fort Laramie. Col. May's command is thirty-five miles this side of Laramie. A large body of Infantry was Ash Hollow. Maj. Emory was encamped on Big Blue, and another commander, name not given, was at Fort Kearney. Provision trains were progressing finely. Sioux Indians were scattered all along route, but were friendly. Heavy snow fell at Fort Bridger, June 10th.

Our dispatches from Leavenworth on the 9th, by steamer War Eagle to Boonville, say letters received by the St. Joseph mail from the army, contain additional news of interest. An officer writing from Johnston's camp on Bear River, June 16th, says they would resume march the next day. Col. Johnston had received an express from the Peace Commissioners, informing him that the army would be received peaceably by the Mormons. Col. Johnston did not, however, feel any increased confidence in the peaceful attitude of the Saints, and the army was kept in readiness to repel any treacherous demonstration.

A proclamation has been issued to the people by Johnston in which he tells them the army is as ready now to afford them assistance and protection as it was to oppose them when in rebellion against government. It was thought this guarantee would cause many Mormons to evade the despotism of Young, who had sedulously fostered the belief that the army was particularly hostile to them. Troops in fine condition, and glad to be released from inaction. Garrison at Fort Bridger consisted of Capt. Hendrickson and Lieut. Smith's companies 6th infantry, and Capt. Stewart's troops of 1st cavalry. Col. Hoffman lost 90 mules but only one cavalry horse in his march across the plains.

Despatches from St. Joseph to the 7th, by U. S. Express to Booneville, says the Salt Lake mail of June 19th had arrived. Col. Johnston and command were met at Echo Cannon, fifty miles from the city. Army in excellent health and spirits. Brigham and followers still at Provo. Young had been at Salt Lake City to confer with Gov. Cumming and the Commissioners, but the result of conference not known. It was the established opinion that the Mormons would make no resistance.

Col. Hoffman left the command of Fort Bridger to Capt. Marcy, and accompanied Johnston.

Everything regarding the future movements of the Mormons is veiled in mystery. The rumor is still rife, however, that they meditate the occupancy of Sonora.

Conjectures were numerous in the Valley that the United States Government intends to purchase the Mormon improvements. The South Platte was very high; the roads were good. The mail party neither met nor saw any Indians on the Plains, but met a great many traders at different points on the road. Mail was nineteen days from Salt Lake to St. Joseph's. The same dispatch says Judge Sinclair, recently appointed Judge of Utah, would leave St. Joseph's on the 10th, accompanied by Mr. Dodge, District Attorney for Utah.

Our Leavenworth correspondent, under date 8th, says an express arrived at Fort Leavenworth, this morning, from Fort Kearney. The express passed the Utah mail for St. Joseph's.

It is said that Gov. Cumming and the Peace Commissioners had concluded a treaty of peace with the Mormons.

Gen. Harney was in camp, 9 miles beyond Fort Kearney, on the 3d. The express, with orders for him to halt, must have overtaken him on the 6th.

The U. S. steamer Mink leaves the Fort to-morrow with Capt. Lavels and Lieut. Lees, and companies Second Infantry, for Fort Randall. She also takes recruits for same regiment.

Judge Cato has resigned his position as District Judge.

To-day the Missouri Republican entered the 51st year of its existence. From a diminutive weekly sheet, 12 by 14½ inches, issued July 12, 1808, it has gradually increased to its present mammoth proportion of 33 by 56 inches, being the largest paper published in the West, and with two exceptions, the largest in the Union. The Republican employs 175 permanent hands, and the aggregate expenses of the establishment reach $4,000 per week.

Further Foreign News by the Fulton.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Important news from India has been received in England by telegraph from Malta.

Sir Hugh Rose had captured Calpee, after having been twice ineffectually attacked by the rebels. Rapid pursuit was made of the enemy, resulting in the capture of a large amount of stores of guns, powder, etc.

Serious disturbances had occurred in the Bombay presidency, where a political agent went with an escort, and had been murdered by the rebels.

Oude was still in a state of rebellion.

The rebels were approaching Lucknow, but the city was fully defended and garrisoned, and no alrrm was felt for their safety.

Sir E. Leyden has defeated the rebels at Inadespore, killing great numbers of them.

Gwalior had been attacked and plundered by the rebels.

A calamitous fire had occurred on the London docks. Damage, £150,000.

The Queen had paid a visit to the steamer Leviathan.

More steamers are to be put on the route between Galway and America.

Dr. Livingstone's arrival at the Cape of Good Hope is reported.

A proposition had been made to send clergymen to Parliament.

Mr. Rarey, the horse-tamer, had exhibited his wonderful exploits before the Queen.

FRANCE.—It was rumored that Admiral Hamline will resign the Marine Department which devolves on Prince Napoleon, Minister of Algiers and the colonies. The transformation of sailing ships into steamers was going on with much activity in France.

ITALY.—The Prince Royal of Sicily had been married to the Duchess Marie of Bavaria. Piedmont persists in demanding indemnity from Naples in the affair of the Cagliari.

Spain is much incensed against England on the same question. A Russian column was advancing into the Caucasus. The Austrians are hastening the construction of ten new forts.

New York and Other News.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The great increase in the arrival of infected vessels at Quarantine has revived the excitement on Staten Island, and threats of violence upon the Quarantine buildings are again made.

A Washington dispatch says that the Constitutionalist party in Mexico, in case they succeed in overthrowing the Zulago Government, intend to make either Queretaro or Aignao the seat of the Federal Government, so as to destroy the centralizing power in Mexico.

A serious riot was threatened yesterday at Hoboken, in consequence of the efforts made by the Mayor to enforce the law against the running of omnibuses on Sunday. The proprietors of the omnibuses, backed by the keepers of lager beer saloons, were determined to resist the law, but were finally overpowered, and their horses and vehicles seized. A large number of special policemen were sworn in.

The omnibus proprietors and saloon keepers subsequently entered a complaint against the Mayor for disturbing the peace.

The U. S. Storeship Relief, Lt. Strong commanding, arrived from Aspinwall, June 21, via Key west, 4th inst. She brings the invalids of the Pacific squadron. The departure of the Relief left Aspinwall without a man of war, and was regarded with regret by the white inhabitants, as they were under apprehension of a riot among the negroes and natives.

The Wabash, Colorado, Dolphin and Macedonia were a Key West. The Colorado, on her passage from Aspinwall, broke her main crank, and must come north for repairs.

The Water Witch, Plymouth, Arctic and Jamestown were cruising about Cuba. The Jamestown was off Havana on the 28th, with 58 cases of fever on board. She was just from San Juan.

Key West was quite healthy. No cases of British outrages are reported.

The bark Corinthian, from Port au Prince, arrived to day. She lost 3 of her crew on the passage, from fever.

Telegraphic Expedition—Perhaps.

ST. JOHNS N. F., July 11th.—The steam tug Blue Jacket, from Liverpool in 28 days, reports having seen on the 24th a large and small steamer, both British in lat. 51.32 North long. 32 West. They made signals, but the Blue Jacket had no code and could not understand them. The same evening saw a large steamer bearing down upon the others, but could not make out whether they were English or American.

The captain of the Blue Jacket says that one of the steamers was a large double decked frigate, with cog wheels fore and aft. She passed within a mile. The other was a large paddle steamer, and was distant half a mile from the other. A large steamer was bearing down upon them in the evening when they were lost sight of. The Blue Jacket's log of the 25th of June reports a strong breeze from the south west by south and weather hazy, with a westerly swell. Latitude, by observation, 5 deg. 12 min. The weather continued moderate and thick till the morning of the 3d inst., when there strong gales from the south west by west with a high sea.

Storm at Albany.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 11.—This has been the hottest day of the season. The thermometer at 9 o'clock this morning marked 97 deg. At half past 11 o'clock we had one of the most severe rain storms ever seen in this vicinity. The streets were flooded for half an hour so as to be impassible; the wind blew a gale, uprooting trees, scattering shingles, chimneys and awnings.

In the country, a few miles from here, there was a terrible hail storm; hailstones larger than hen's eggs fell, doing considerable damage to the crops. Three miles below this city a vessel loaded with lumber was blown over.

Sentence for Slave Stealing.

PETERSBURG, Va., July 9.—The trial of the captain and crew of the schooner Francis French, on the charge of stealing slaves, commenced at the Hustings Court, Smithfield, to-day. The steward, Thompson, plead guilty and was sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Attempted Bank Robbery.

LANSINGBURGH, N. Y., July 12.—The Farmers' Bank, of Lansingburgh, was entered last night, and a desperate attempt made to open the safe, but without success.

Arrival of the Canada.

ST. JOHNS, N. F.—The R. M. steamship Canada, from Liverpool on the 3d inst., passed Cape Race at 1 A. M. to-day.

The Indian arrived out on the 30th, and the North Star and Kangaroo on the 1st.

Cotton at Liverpool had considerably advanced, with larger sales during the week.

Breadstuffs firm; flour 6d higher. Wheat advanced 1@2d, owing to drought on the continent. Corn dull. Provisions steady. Consols for account 95¼@97⅛.

News of but little importance.

The bill allowing the House of Commons to admit Jews passed to the second reading in the Lords, by 46 majority.

Parliament will be prorogued before the end of July.

The Spanish ministry had resigned, and a new cabinet had been organized, headed by O'Donnell.

Casualties, Etc.

BOSTON, Mass., July 13.—In Waltham, on Saturday, Miss Ellen Wallace, aged 19, was drowned by the capsizing of a boat.

The lightning struck the dwelling house on the corner of Pearl and Washington streets, doing some damage but injuring no person.

The thermometer has fallen 34 degrees since yesterday. To-day we are having an easterly rain storm.

Among the prominent guests at the Nahant House, this season, are Lord Napier and family.

Sentenced to be Hanged.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Michael Cancemi was to-day sentenced by Judge Wright to be hanged September 2d, for the murder of Policeman Anderson.

Nothing from the Ocean Telegraph.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 12, 10 A. M.—The weather is cool, and clearing up. Wind north-east. No signs of the Telegraph fleet.

Cures old chronic, mercurial, dyphtitic, and all diseases of the skin, blood, &c. &c., without mercury, hinderance from business, or exposure.

Also, impotence cured, and full and permanent vigor restored in TWO WEEKS. Gleet, no matter of how long standing, cured in FIVE DAYS. Gonorrhes cured in TWO DAYS. Stricture cured without any pain whatever in a few days.

Diseases Peculiar to Females,

Such as Amenorrhea, Dysmenorrhea, Metrorrhagia, Chlorosis, Nervous Debility, &c., successfully treated.

DR. JAMES could bring forth columns of testimonials of persons whom he has cured, were it not for the delicacy of the subject, but in lieu thereof he here appends a few extracts of editorials of the New Orleans and Southern press, and will, from time to time, produce more. Dr. James' only object in producing these testimonials is to gain the confidence of those of Chicago and surrounding country requiring medical aid, and to convince them that he is no charlatan or quack, but an honorable, practical, and theoretical practitioner.

And whose sole aim is and will be,
For the wrong that needs resistance,
For the cause that needs assistance,
For the future in the distance,
And the good that I can do.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

From the New Orleans Crescent, June 9, '58.

We can cheerfully recommend Dr. James, of 82 Custom House street, N. O., wherever he goes, as a practitioner, in his peculiar branch of medicine, who has no living superior, and few, if any, rivals.

From the Galveston News, Texas, May 5, '54.

DR. JAMES.—We have seen many notices and testimonials of the speedy and safe cures effected by Dr. James, of 82 Custom House street, New Orleans, La., and from his long experience and successful practice in New Orleans, we can cheerfully recommend all who need his services to apply to him by letter or otherwise.

From the Eufaula, Ala., True Whig, 1854.

Dr. James has no superior in the Union, or out of it. We know the Doctor personally; so to him, we say, if you are sick; he is a scientific and honorable gentleman.

From the Baton Rouge, La., Gazette & Comet, Nov. 18 '57.

Dr. James' success has won for him a wide spread reputation. His Hospital is 82 Custom House street, New Orleans, La.

From the Granada, Miss., Locomotive, 1856.

It is said by those in New Orleans who have required Dr. James' services, that he has no superior in the Union.

☞ Remember Dr. James' Office is 159 Lake street, corner of Lasalle—up stairs—where he can be found from 9 A. M. till 2 P. M., and from 4 P. M. till 7 P. M.

EYE AND EAR.
DR. UNDERWOOD,
FORMERLY OF THE EYE AND EAR Infirmary of Louisville, Ky., and more recently Physician and Surgeon to the Eye and Ear Infirmary, Columbus, Ohio, and author of a "New System of Treating Diseases of the Eye and Ear without the use of the Knife," would announce that he has permanently established an Infirmary in the city of Chicago, Illinois, and has taken rooms at 73 South Clark street, where he will remain in order to afford to those afflicted with diseases of the Eye and Ear, an opportunity of being treated by a system which is entirely new, perfectly safe, and has never been known to fail in effecting permanent cures, especially in all cases of Opthalmia (or inflammation of the eye) whether acute or chronic, whether catarrhal, purulent, scrofulous, or rheumatic. It will also remove all Opacities of the Cornea, whether of a nebulous or albuginous character, or any other external scum, film, or extraneous substance, from the sight of the Eye. The new mode of treatment has never failed of curing Pteregium, Staphyloma and Amaurosis, and has even succeeded in removing Cataract from the Eye, whether Capsular or Lenticular, in a great majority of cases, without the use of the knife or needle.

He has been equally successful in his treatment of Diseases of the Ear, with his new system. For skill and success in his profession, the Doctor directs those interested to the following well known citizens of Columbus, Ohio: Capt. E. M. Lilley, Judge Rankin, Capt. Wm. Willis, Rev. Dr. Hulburd, of the Presbyterian Church; and the following members of the Ohio Legislature: Hon. Dr. Flower of Perry county, Hon. Patrick Thompson of Coshocton county, Hon. Mr. Johnson of Hocking, Hon. J. A. Bell of Medina county; all of whom are personally acquainted with the Doctor's success.

☞ No charge made for an examination and opinion. Patients at a distance, can have medicines and directions sent to them by giving a minute description of their cases. au26'58-1y

"WHAT CHEER?" HOP YEAST CAKES.

DO YOU LIKE GOOD, SWEET HEALTHY Bread? If you do, you must 1st—Avoid all the deleterious powders that are made with soda, saleratus, &c.
2d—Have good flour, and fresh, lively yeast.
3d—Have your Bread made AT HOME.

The "What Cheer" Yeast Cakes are made of pure dry hops, will keep (in a dry place) any length of time, and are always sweet and ready for use. The Bread is whiter and sweeter than when made with common yeast. In making batter for cakes mix it at night thick, put in the yeast, set it in a warm place, and in the morning thin it with warm water before baking.

The following is from the "Independent" of April:

"DOMESTIC BREAD.—Though bakers are a great convenience, everybody prefers good 'home made' bread to the best product of the public ovens. To insure this, however, one needs good flour, good yeast, a good oven, and a good cook. Of these indispensables, the most difficult to be procured in the city is the second; and hence one is obliged to vacillate between the strong beer fermentations of brewer's yeast and some vile compound of soda and saleratus. Happily, a preparation has now been devised which insures that first requisite of domestic comfort—sweet, healthy bread. We have made full trial of the 'What Cheer Hop Yeast Cakes,' and we do cordially advise whoever would have good, light bread, and consequently good temper, good digestion, and good sleep, to cast off all the old leaven out of the house, and lay in a supply of this new article."

The cakes are put up in one dozen packages, and in gross boxes. After trial of a dozen, every family will for economy buy a gross box.

PRESS AND TRIBUNE.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 13, 1858.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

For State Treasurer.
JAMES MILLER,
OF McLEAN COUNTY.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction.
NEWTON BATEMAN,
OF MORGAN COUNTY.

The Two Factions of the Democracy.

The Old-Liners—by this we mean the regulars, the Simon-pures, those who will not say that they are "indifferent whether Slavery is voted up or down;" but who go distinctly for its unlimited extension—are first on our list. They are the friends of the President—the original old Dr. Townsends of the party, whose creed it is and whose argument it is to damn "the Abolitionists" without stint or limitation, and with no regard to the time, place or circumstances of the cursing. As yet, they are almost all officers, though the number of their recruits is daily increasing. Perhaps they do not hope for immediate success in Illinois, because they know that the days of miracles have gone by; but they claim that they are the advance guard of the Democratic organization—the chosen defenders of the faith to whom the care of the sacred banner is entrusted. At the head of the columns are the old wheel-horses of the party—Dr. Brainerd, Thomas Hoyne, Col. Carpenter—in 1856 the trusted champion of Douglas—Lieb, the early friend, and we do not know but the sometime bed fellow of Buchanan; Strother in the Custom House, Cook in the Post Office, to say nothing of Fitch the U. S. District Attorney, the leader and mouthpiece of the younger bloods who are getting hot for the fray. Of their tactics we know nothing, except what we learn from their public declarations. They propose to neither ask nor give quarter—to make no alliances, offensive or defensive; but to declare alone the whole party creed; to carry out in good faith the original intent of the Kansas Nebraska bill; push Slavery into all the Territories of the United States, on the ground that it is a Christianizing and humanizing institution, defensible by the law of God and the necessities of white mankind. How many votes they will cast no man can tell. The accessions to their ranks of those who are willing to acquiesce in the English bill, and of those who do not propose to make the Democratic party a one-man power, or a machine to elect any particular man to the Senate or the Presidency, are large, and are daily growing larger. They have a ticket in the field, and on it are the names of two of the oldest and ablest Democrats in Illinois. We shall see how many votes it will command.

When Mr. Douglas split with Mr. Buchanan on a question of fact, whether the Lecompton Constitution had been properly submitted or not—both agreeing that a submission was necessary to give it validity—he carried off a majority, perhaps, of the rank and file of his party in this State, though elsewhere his alleged defection produced little or no effect. These men, with the Senator at their head, claim to be the Democratic party; and, having its machinery in their hands, are using it for the benefit of their chief. They assert, though with great trepidation, that they are sure of success; that here in Illinois there may be a Democratic party opposed to the Democratic party of the Union and a Democratic National Administration; that such a party is necessary and that they will maintain it. The creed of the bolters is "Douglas," their object "Douglas," and their weapon "Douglas." To them, Mr. Douglas is the embodiment of political wisdom. When he dies all knowledge of political affairs dies with him. He is the inventor of the right of self-government, the originator of Popular Sovereignty and the first and only exponent of pure Democracy. He is an idol, and they are his worshippers. Like any other idol, all his virtues are in the belief of others that such virtues do exist in him. He will make the fight on what he terms Popular Sovereignty—Popular Sovereignty of the bogus, bastard, Douglas sort. He will set out with the general proposition that all men are entitled to the right of self-government—a proposition that nobody will deny. But his hearers will shout, "What a wonderful discovery!—what a head that man has got!" When, a little further on, he limits that right to the descendants of the colonists who were in the country at the time of the Revolution, (vide his Springfield Speech,) they will roar again "That's the doctrine!" and when, still progressing, he announces that the people of a Territory have no right to exclude Slavery, though they may establish it; that they have a right to regulate the marriage relation, the relation of children to parents, and all other of their domestic institutions, Slavery alone excepted, these idolators will shout again with delight. And when, as a closing argument, he adopts and reaffirms the obiter dicta of the Supreme Court in the case of Dred Scott, which declare that Popular Sovereignty does not exist in the Territories at all—that Congress has no power over Slavery therein—that the people have now power over it—that it goes into every Territory by virtue of the Constitution alone—that the old sap-heads who framed the Ordinance of 1787, the Constitution, the Missouri Compromise, and every other act for the limitation of Slavery, were dullards, who knew nothing about their business,—these friends of Douglas who do not see that true Popular Sovereignty and true Dred Scottism will not mix any more than oil and water, and that they cannot live together by any possibility whatever, will shout "Amen!" with lungs of infinite power; though with apparent stolidity of mind that could hardly be expected in these days of school-houses and newspapers.

Of course, Mr. Douglas' assumptions are the boldest and rankest of humbugs; but we depend upon the intelligence of the people to detect and expose them. Long before this canvass is ended they will see the true bearings and the real extent of the propositions which he will maintain. It is not possible that he could traverse the State and demonstrate to a majority of the people that two and two make five. For him to prove that he is in favor of Popular Sovereignty in the Territories in which he maintains the Dred Scott decision, is a task quite as difficult. Long before he has made his grand tour, it will be apparent, even to him, that Douglas is played out. Republicans, fully enlightened as to his creed and its enormity, will oppose him the more strenuously for his deceit; and the Democrats who desire to maintain their connection with the party in which they have acted, will learn that Mr. Douglas, holding the creed that they profess, has put its leading tenets out of sight, and gone industriously at work angling for Free Soil votes. The result is inevitable—he must fall between the two!

The Reaper and Mower Trial at La Porte.

At the reaper and mower trial at La Porte on the 7th and 8th inst., there was a large display of machines, says the La Porte Times, and the examination passed off to the general satisfaction. The following is the report of the Committee on Awards:

ON REAPERS—STATE BOARD.
1st premium—Mann's with Witt's improvement..	$50.00
2d premium—J. J. Mann & Son's	15.00
MOWERS.
1st premium—Aultman & Miller's National Mower, Canton, Ohio	30.00
2d premium—H. F. Mann's Great Western Iron Mower, Laporte, Co	15.00
REAPERS AND MOWERS COMBINED.
1st premium—Kirby's Combined, Buffalo, N. Y....	30 00
2d premium—Esterly, Whitewater, Wis....	15.00

It is proper to state that all the machines which entered for trial by the direction of the State Board were entered in the County contest, and the awards are as follows—there being no 2nd premiums offered by the County Board:

J. J. & H. F. Mann's Patent Reaper	$10.00
H. F. Mann's Great Western Iron Mower	10.00
Rugg's Harvester (combined)	10.00

The State Board will hereafter report upon the individual merits of the respective machines.

☞ The barn of Mr. Biggs of Bradford, Rock County, Wis., was struck by lightning during the thunder storm of Saturday last. It was entirely destroyed, together with 1,200 bushels of barley, 200 of wheat, and 70 of oats, besides farming utensils and other tools. The barn was insured for $300; the grain for $400. Loss about $900.

An Evil Spirit Cast Out of a Senator.

The terrible monster Amalgamation has again taken Senator Douglas in its claws. It attends upon his down-sitting and his uprising. It grins in his face and shrieks in his ear, and he shrieks its dismal tale back in the ears of the bystanders. It is a molasses-colored griffin, and the burthen of its song is "Deterioration of the White Race." It has got the Senator from Illinois, or the Senator from Illinois has got it, just as other people get the nightmare or the delirium tremens. (People in Cincinnati say that Douglas has got it.) As other folks see black cats and green turtles, and other unpleasant bed-fellows, after eating mince pie for supper, or as Democrats are frequently brought face to face with snakes, lizards, and other slimy associations, after a steady course of ardent beverages, so is this man regularly thrown into convulsions by the presence of the mulatto goblin after dining off young niggers. The medical faculty had predicted that the sale of the "stock" on the Mississippi plantation would work a radical cure of the distemper, but the facts prove otherwise. It is evidently chronic. We fear that nothing short of seclusion or change of climate will work even temporary relief.

We who are sane upon this topic—we who never thought of marrying a black woman—we whose sisters and daughters are not in the least inclined to marry black men, and indeed look upon Desdemona as a hoax—we can look at things rationally, and judge whether our Senator's fears proceed from any well grounded danger of personal harm, or wholly from a disordered fancy. Everybody knows that Douglas never has The Amalgation, south of Mason and Dixon's line, except now and then a bad turn in Washington. But regularly when he returns to Illinois the evil spirit leapeth upon him and teareth him, and he suddenly crieth out. Let it be peremptorily cast out. There is no reason why a great man should be destroyed, his faculties palsied, his constituents sent into premature grief, and all that, for lack of a suitable effort to exorcise the monster.

The census tables of 1850 exhibit a few peculiar facts which may do something towards restoring tonicity to the honorable gentleman's imagination. The State of Mississippi contained 20,365 mulattoes in 1850, while the State of Illinois at the same date contained only 2,506, and at the same date the State of Mississippi contained but 26,876 Democratic voters—or 6,511 more Democrats than mulattoes. A mulatto, as Noah Webster defines it, is a person that is the offspring of white and black parents. The definition in the Southern States of this Union, has been somewhat improved by social and legal distinctions as to the sexes of the parents. A mulatto there, is always understood to have had a black mother. Hence the inference that three-fourths of the Democrats in Mississippi are the parents or brothers of one or more mulattoes. It does not destroy the force of our logic to say that the merit of this gigantic job must be divided with the Whigs of Mississippi. Most of them have since become Democrats, and in any event the need of missionary effort is not diminished. We take it that there is to-day about one mulatto in Mississippi to each Democrat, and that that one is related by blood to half a dozen other Democrats beside his progenitor, either as brother, cousin or nephew. But in Illinois, where there are only 2,506 mulattoes, it happens that more than one half of them are born out of the State—a fair proportion of them doubtless in the South. Thus we see that there is just sixteen times as much need of orations against Amalgamation in Mississippi as in Illinois. And—ahem!—we find in the little triangle called the District of Columbia 4,078 mulattoes to a white male population of 18,494; thus opening a wide and growing field for Mr. Douglas' talents as a preserver of the purity of the white race. When we come to Virginia—mother of Statesmen—where all the families are first families, and most of them claim connection with the daughter of an Indian, we find the astonishing number of 79,775 mulattoes, or about seven and one-half times the number in all the free States together. The genealogical tree of these mulattoes runs into a wilderness of ramifications with the branches, boughs, twigs and leaves of all the First Families. The whole number of Democrats in the State at the same date was only 72,413, and the whole number of voters only 129,545. The presumption is that every first family in the State counts mulatto sons, daughters, brothers, sisters, etc., by the score, and that every Democrat in the State is responsible for the "deterioration of the white race" to the extent of one, or that the number of those who are not so responsible, is compensated by the extra diligence of their Democratic neighbors.

Leaving the details, we find that there were in 1850 about 400,000 mulattoes in the Southern States, and 434,826 Democrats. The coincidence between the number of mulattoes and Democrats is so regular as to lead to the belief of design or intention somewhere. We will not say there is or was such design, but it is susceptible of proof that wherever you find a Democrat south of Mason and Dixon's line, you find a mulatto. How he came there we will not pretend to say.

Does not this go to show the high absurdity of Judge Douglas' paroxysms in view of Amalgamation in Illinois? If we might go a little farther, we should say that his style of talk is not precisely gallant or complimentary to the ladies of this section of the Union. O! Mr. Douglas! Fie, Mr. Douglas!!

But we trust we shall hear less hereafter of the woes of Amalgamation from the mouth of this distinguished Senator. Or, if he must talk about it, let him immediately after Mr. Lincoln's election to the Senate, take up his staff and commence a missionary career in the southern half of the Republic. Let his theme be the terrors of Amalgamation. Let him take a specimen along, as spiritual lecturers travel with trance mediums. He can doubtless find one. Let him wrestle mightily with the man of sin. He is fitted for the work; and his recent efforts in this latitude lead us to believe he is fitted for nothing else.

Wm. Walker and the Administration.

In a speech of Fillibuster Walker at New Orleans, a few days since, he announced "that Mr. "Buchanan, through his Secretary of War, sent "an ambassador to him (Gen. Walker), saying "that if he would forego the Nicaragua enter-"prise and engage in the service of Mexico, and "while in that service do some act, such as tear-"ing down the flag of Spain, rendering a war be-"tween Spain and Mexico inevitable, he (Walker) "would receive the support of the administra-"tion."

This is about on a par with the policy of Mr. Pierce in sending Pierre Soule as Minister to Spain to kick up a bobbery about Cuba. The Washington Union, however, denies that negotiations were opened with Walker as he asserts, but the Administration has been so mixed up with his fillibustering projects that the public will require some stronger proof than the Union's mere denial to convince it that there was no foundation for Walker's statement.

Waverley Novels—Household Edition.

We are under obligations to Messrs. S. C. Griggs & Co., Nos. 39 and 41 Lake street, for another instalment of the Boston Household Edition of the Waverley Novels. We have before us "Peveril of the Peak" and the "Fortunes of Nigel." The works of Britain's greatest writer of historical romance need no commendation of ours. They are essential to every library and to every intelligent household. We simply remind the subscribers to the Household Edition that the volumes above named are ready for delivery, and we say to those who have not subscribed, that they should send in their orders at once to Messrs. Griggs & Co.

Wisconsin Stay Law.

In the Circuit Court at Milwaukee, on Saturday, Judge McArthur pronounced a lengthy opinion upon the mortgage law, applicable to several cases that had been argued before him. The conclusion at which he arrived is, that the law is unconstitutional, and therefore "null and void." The case will be immediately carried to the Supreme Court, and it is understood that a hearing and decision will be obtained at the present term. So says the Wisconsin.

☞ The Pittsburgh Advocate says that Bishop Simpson has so far recovered his health that he will soon be able to resume his labors in the regular work of the Episcopacy.

Railway Matters.

Land Collections by the Illinois Central Co.—The collections made by the Illinois Central Company in the month of June, on account of the land sales of 1855-6, now falling due, amount to $63,643. The Company purchased and canceled $49,000 of their mortgage bonds, out of the proceeds of these collections. The original mortgages are reduced by this process, thus far, $791,000.

The La Crosse Co. and the Land Grant.—Gov. Randall has addressed a letter to the President of the La Crosse Railroad Co., who had applied to him for such a certificate as would enable the company to come into possession of 150,000 acres of the land grant, stating that inasmuch as the company has failed to comply with the terms of the act conferring upon them the north-western grant, the Governor has refused to accede to their request. That act makes it incumbent upon the La Crosse company to build lines of railroad from Madison and Columbus, which are required to be completed by the 31st of December next; and they must build twenty miles of road from Madison towards Portage City, and commence the work of construction at Columbus, before they are entitled to a certificate from the Governor, by which they can come in possession of the above named amount of land. None of these conditions have been fulfilled, and hence the Governor's refusal.

Condition of the Michigan Central Co.—From the report of the Company, making an exhibit of its affairs up to the 1st of June, we take the following figures:

	1858. June 1.	vs.	1857. June 1.
Capital	$6,057,840		$6,058,022
Funded Debt	8,284,063		5,836,563
Floating Debt	118,576		1,450,834
Income Balance	87,418		564,803
Dividend uncalled for	513		704
Total	$14,548 410		$13,910,985
Construction	$12,847,214		$11,848,957
New Albany Stock	609,703		609,703
Joliet Stock and Bonds	206,826		186,842
Steamboats	311,719		311,719
Bills, accounts, cash, &c.	572,865		953,765
Total	$14,548,410		$13,910,985

The features of the present Report are, that the heavy floating debt of last season, and which had been running on for several years, has been funded, and part of the original debt renewed, at a cost, in the way of discount upon the new loan of the Company, negotiated soon after the crisis, of $865,603, and that this item, with $132,678 for new machinery, &c., goes to swell the construction cost of the line. The income balance of last season is reduced by the payment of the June dividend, 1857, of 5 per cent., $302,855. No further dividend was declared during the year, and no part of the net earnings placed to the credit of income account. The new year starts June 1, 1858, with the bills and accounts due the Company, and materials on hand, reduced by revaluation to the cash worth of $572,865, equal to the payment of that portion of the funded debt falling due within the years 1858 and 1859. The general balance sheet would therefore seem to be clean for the strict application of the net earnings of the present year, first to the funded interest and then to the renewal of regular dividends upon the stock.

The Report, by way of illustrating the effect of the change of times wrought by the crisis upon the economies as well as earnings of the road, states that since 1st January last $252,991 has been saved, as compared with the expenses of the same five months in 1857, and that this is equal to 30 per cent., or as $574,038 is to $827,029 last year. At the same time, the traffic only fell off $227,713, leaving $25,277 net gain on the profits of this season. This test would reduce the operating expenses of the road once more to 50 per cent. of the gross traffic. And it will require $1,150,000 in gross for the first half of the new year to resume dividends at the rate of 8 per cent. in December next, and to pay interest at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum on the funded debt. Last year the traffic was in

June	$242,857	September	$269,344
July	217,181	October	256,325
August	173,708	November	217,589
Total for six months			$1 377,004

Baltimore and the Lakes.—On the 5th inst., the Northern Central Railroad of Pennsylvania was opened to Sunbury, and in honor of the occasion an excursion train ran over the whole road from Baltimore to Sunbury, a distance of 138 miles. The work which is now completed is a consolidation of the York and Baltimore, York and Cumberland, and the Susquehanna Railroads. At Sunbury it connects with the Sunbury and Erie Railroad, which thus opens to it an extended chain of roads, via Williamsport, Elmira, etc., to Buffalo and Niagara. The new road from Harrisburg to Sunbury will, says the North American, be useful to that rich mineral region, and will also be connected with Philadelphia by the Pennsylvania and the Lebanon Valley roads. To the Sunbury and Erie the new line is important. It had previously an avenue to Philadelphia by way of Catawissa and Reading. It has now a short and direct road to the State capital at Harrisburg, and to the port of Baltimore.

Work on the Minnesota Railroads.—We learn by the St. Paul papers, that the operations on the Minnesota and Pacific Railroad are in course of vigorous prosecution. Nearly two hundred men are already at work above St. Anthony, upon an extent of fourteen miles. The work will be commenced between St. Paul and St. Anthony as soon as the settlement of some questions affecting the right of way permit the Company to fix the final location of the road. Mr. Chamberlain's contract extends to the completion, in everything except rolling stock, of fifty miles of road from Stillwater and up the east bank of the Mississippi.

Mr. Chamberlain has also taken the contract for the Root River Railroad, and operations were to have been commenced thereon at La Crescent, on July 1st.

The work on the Transit Railroad is being carried on with energy under the superintendence of Col. De Graff, the contractor. The grading of the first ten miles of this road west from Winona is being rapidly pushed forward. Col. De Graff now has over one thousand hands hired, and will put them to work as fast as the engineers complete the necessary surveys. The Transit road will be completed from Winona to Rochester by the first of August, 1859.

The French Press on the Slave Trade.

We glean the following from the news by the Africa's mails:

Rumor is afloat, says the Paris correspondent of the Globe, that British diplomacy having exercised some pressure at Madrid as to measures of slave trade suppression around the coast of Cuba, Spain had applied to Napoleon III. for support against any compulsory proceedings on the part of the British cruisers, and had met encouragement in that quarter. The policy of France is decidedly in favor of a disguised but effectual complicity in the transportation of negroes, whether kidnapped or "voluntary emigrants," and in proof of a disinclination to suffer Africans to emerge from the condition of workmen, a recent act in French Guiana forms the subject of a leader in the Debats. The transfer or purchase of land there is now subject to a most iniquitous tax, the object of which is to prevent a small proprietary from growing up among the liberated blacks. Large estates and small patches of waste ground are liable to exactly the same fiscal obstacle, which is on a par with the duty levied at Civita Vecchia on "foreign liquors," a bottle of Champagne, or of prime Barclay and Perkins, being taxed nothing more nor less than a bottle of Warren's blacking.

The Constitutionnel has a violent article upon Lord Malmesbury's explanations in the House of Lords touching the case of the Regina Cœli. It says:

"The pretended slaves on board the Regina Cœli were not slaves; they were men who had been free for a long time past; they were citizens of two republics, exported from the United States to Liberia, who had freely contracted engagements for our colonies, and who had no other motive in revolting than thirst of blood and love of pillage. Need we add that it is false, entirely false, that irons or chains are to be found on board our vessels employed in the emigration trade? It is a pure invention. Everybody is aware that recruiting of Africans is effected under the active and able surveillance of French cruisers, under the immediate control of the administration, which places an agent on board every vessel employed, and under the eyes of the surgeon who has a responsibility to protect. The positive accusations made in the House of Lords were therefore void of all pretext as of all foundation."

The correspondent of the Globe remarks:

"The violent article of the Constitutionnel against Lord Malmesbury's speech on the Slave trade which was signed by the chief editor of the Constitutionnel himself has created not a little sensation. It is prophesied that this article is only the beginning of a series of attacks on the Government press of England, with which attacks on Austria are to go hand in hand. But such prophets of evil have lost much credit of late."

The Univers talks in the same violent strain:

"While the Government of England recoils before that of Washington, and before the menacing speeches of Congress, it displays a desire to interfere in France, with the view of preventing the recruitment of free blacks on the African coast. Our neighbors too readily forget that Paris is not Naples; and they will doubtless very soon learn not to forget this fact."

News from South Kansas.

The Lawrence Republican of the 1st says a company of "Southern emigrants," under Col. Titus, made a visit to Neosho Valley, last week, and stole fifteen horses. The Sheriff of the county, with a small posse, trailed them the next day to Titus's camp, below Humboldt, near the Osage Mission. He refused to give up the horses, and the Sheriff returned. A messenger was dispatched to Capt. Montgomery, who refused to go because he had promised to leave the field, and allow Gov. Denver's plan to be carried out.

Capt. Hamilton has a camp in Missouri, about ten miles from the Trading Post. He still breathes threatenings and slaughter against the inhabitants of Kansas. His men boldly report that they are supported by the Southern pro-slavery fund, and do not expect to leave till they have driven every Free State man from Linn and Bourbon counties. Some threaten the whole Territory.—Missouri Democrat, 10th.

Letter from Shem of Champaign County.

Flailing hot weather—Harvest in successful operation, half completed—Rains, rust and yield of Crops—Facts in relation to partial failure of crops for four years—Septennial periodicity of the seasons, its bearing on the prairies, climate and crops of Illinois—Price of winter wheat—Postponement of State Fair from middle of September to middle of October—Report of regular quarterly homicide at Tolona. Engine of the weather standing on its centre in Champaign Co.—Remarkable coincidence.

West Urbana, Champaign Co., Ill.,
Saturday, 10th July, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:—To-day closes an uninterrupted week of the most flailingly hot and brilliant harvest weather, and one-half of the winter wheat crop of this county and neighborhood may be considered as secured. Another week will enable us to lay out the balance, then the next week we shall clap to and plough out the corn, and by that time the spring wheat will be ready for the reaper. Indeed many fields will be, before that time; but so much has it been damaged by the red and black rust, that scarcely more than two-thirds the area sown will be cut.

The deluging rains of June 30th and July 1st did great damage in this county and neighborhood, as well by softening the already soft fields, so that many reapers would not work at all, and none could be driven at more than half the usual speed, and so in the same proportion increasing the cost of harvesting, as that they developed to a wider extent, and in a more pronounced form, the rust in the spring wheat crop. My own impressions, founded on observation and inquiry, is, that of winter wheat we shall in this county and neighborhood get half a crop. The berry will be larger and sounder than that of last year, and the amount of impurities considerably less. Of spring wheat we shall get less than the third of a crop, the berry will be found badly shrunken, much worse than the winter wheat of last year. Oats, as I wrote you, are completely flailed out, and the heads of barley are short and the berry small and shriveled. The five or ten per cent of the corn crop that was put into the ground previous to the 1st of May, and withstood all the assaults of the season, and has since been once or twice ploughed out and the weeds kept under, is already three and four feet high, and is pushing on almost at a rate to equal the bean-stalk of Jack in the fable. Should the weather hold fine and dry, and farmers get time and opportunity to plough out, and the sun to kill the weeds, we may hope for a third of a crop of corn; otherwise not in central Illinois.

No full crop has been secured in Illinois since 1854. Three successive years of half harvests, namely—in 1855, 1856 and 1857,—will, I hope, culminate in the year of grace, 1858, when we shall get not over the third of a crop. Farmers went through the drouth and scarcity of 1855 and 1856 on the flood of high prices; how they will get through with the wet seasons and low prices of 1857 and 1858, is a problem to be solved. Have the seven years from 1851 to 1858, and from 1844 to 1851, been such as we may expect to see repeated on the prairies of Illinois in future? Shall we have to calculate on the floods of '17, '23, '30, '37, '44, '51 and '58, recurring at regular and stated periods; and upon the septennial return of such fiery summers and scorching drouths as in 1858, and such Arctic winters as those of the same and the previous year? If so, agriculture must undergo a considerable modification, and the future character of our prairie farming be widely different from the present. Perhaps, too, could we establish this law of septennial periodicity, we might be doing something toward answering the question so frequently asked, and to which nothing like a satisfactory reply has been made: Whence the prairies of Illinois, and how is it that they have so long, for so many ages, (as the depth of the soil accumulated on them shows,) remained comparatively barren, while the soil contains elements necessary for the prodigious growth of every tree and vegetable of the temperate zone? Is it from climatic causes, and have they always been subject to being flailed by the extremes of heat and drouth, and frost and fire? Those of us who have been eight years in Illinois, have seen all these extremes once, and witnessed a part of them repeated. Will such as have been in the State a longer time give us farmers the benefit of their experience?

Mr. B. F. Johnson, of this place, whose name has been paraded in the newspapers lately as the Chairman of the Committee appointed by the Illinois State Agricultural Society to examine farms offered for premium, informs me he resigned the post unqualifiedly, two weeks ago. He pleads inevitable engagements; but I suspect he has a suspicion that he lacks both experience and knowledge to do justice in the business; besides (and this is to be considered private) what sort of a report could you expect from a man who can scarcely write his name—and who is quite inadequate to the achievement of a sentence in good English.

There is some talk of postponing the time of holding the State Fair, from the 15th of September to the same time in October. September is bound to be warm and dry, so warm and dry that hundreds of animals and thousands of visitors will be kept away from the Fair. Besides, owing to the character of the season, the wheat crop will scarcely begin to move before September, and the flood tide from the South will be pouring into Chicago by the middle of September, and railroads will feel little like sacrificing the first profitable and full business they have enjoyed for a twelvemonth. I hope the time for holding the State Fair at Centralia will be postponed from the 14th to 19th of September, say to the 12th to 17th of October. Such exchange would probably add $5,000 to the receipts, and infinitely to the comfort and pleasure of those attending it.

The regular quarterly homicide of an Irishman came off at the ambitious village of Tolona yesterday. The previous one was pronounced an aggravated case of murder by the Coroner's Jury; the last was committed in self defence. The last difficulty grew out of the swindling transactions of one Col. Swift, late agent of Smith & Calhoun, and later a fugitive from debt and justice. The Irishman, Coughlin, is still alive, though believed to be mortally wounded, and Cardwell, who was compelled to shoot in self-defence, has been examined and discharged. For particulars see papers.

The engine of the weather has been standing on its centre all the morning, and still at 1 P. M. remains so. Should the weather turn fair, I shall conclude it has started ahead, and will continue so for some days, perhaps a week; if it turns foul the engine is working backward, sure, and falling weather and a catching week may be anticipated. I have not heard a solitary growl of thunder, nor seen a flicker of lightning for a week*—but I am mistaken, there sure comes from the South a mutter of thunder with the true tropic snarl; the engine of the weather has passed its centre—it is working backwards, so I must to the fields, stopping only to say that I am,

Very truly yours, Shem.

* It is true, I had not previously for a week, heard thunder or seen lightning, until after writing the word lightning second above, when it thundered as related, and a heavy rain is promised from the S. W.

Evanston—A Few Corrections.

Evanston, Ill, July 10 1858.

Editors Chicago Daily Press and Tribune:

Some erroneous statements have crept into your account of the Celebration at this place on 5th, which I feel called upon to correct.

You allude to Dr. Evans as the founder of the town, and also refer to him as the radiating head from whom we derive our politics and religion. You further state that the town contains "three or four hundred inhabitants."

Now, Mr. Evans is a most worthy and respected citizen, yet not the founder of this village. True, it derives its name from him, because of the esteem of its people for him, and not on account of any pecuniary interest which he may have.

The statement that we derive our politics and religion from any man, is no compliment to the intelligence of this community. We have but few, if any, citizens who wish to derive their opinions upon such subjects from others. We enjoy religion in our own way and for its own sake, not for that of any "respected founder." And here permit me to correct the impression which seems to be abroad, that we are all Methodists. We have a regularly organized Baptist church, and steps are being taken to organize a Presbyterian church. In fact, Methodists are not the predominating sect in this place.

If we are a town of "three or four hundred inhabitants," we must enjoy political freedom to a great extent, as, at our last election, we polled about three hundred straight Republican votes. The inhabitants of this village number about thirteen hundred.

In another place you say, "No one felt at liberty to supply the Doctor's place," in reply to a toast;—from which people would infer that we have no other speakers. We may have no better, but we have those who have won fame in wider fields, and to whose eloquence many of your own citizens will testify. Their delicacy on this, and some other occasions, is the result of a generous desire to give others, less experienced, an opportunity.

We will not complain at your giving many of our best citizens to Chicago, as our own knowledge of the error will be satisfaction quite sufficient. Yours &c. Evanston.

☞ At Cedar Rapids, on the 4th inst., three men, named John Hickey, Charles Rafferty, and John Goodwin, in attempting to cross the river in a skiff above the dam, were carried over, and all drowned. All were Irishmen. Hickly leaves a wife and four children; the other two were young and unmarried. So says the Valley Times.

Commencement of Monroe Female Seminary.

Monroe City, Mich., July 9.

Editors Chicago Daily Press & Tribune:

The weather has been so oppressively hot for the last few days, that I have not felt like making the physical or mental effort necessary to even write you a letter. I have been trying to keep cool down here in the southern corner of Michigan, in the little city of Munroe—"The city of Flowers"—and truly it is a beautiful place. Every house surrounded with a broad and ample yard filled with shade, and laid out with winding walks and adorned with blooming roses. It is a like a New England town, quiet, shady and beautiful.

What brought me to this shady nook was the examination and commencement of the "Young Ladies' Seminary and Collegiate Institute," an Institution that stands not merely among the first, but in my opinion the first in the West, and that you, the editors of the Press and Tribune, know from your own observation.

The examination of the several classes connected with the Young Ladies' Seminary and the exercises of the graduating class on commencement, have just closed. Having been permitted for several years past to be in attendance on their anniversary occasions, I can but express my honest conviction, strengthened by this year's observation, that this Institution of learning is well worthy of the patronage it receives. The course of study, which is comprehensive, and which favorably compares with that of any other Female College in the land, has been from year to year tested by actual experiment in the several departments, and with the most happy results. Notwithstanding the embarrassed condition of financial affairs, and its consequent influence upon all literary institutions, more than one hundred young ladies have been in attendance as scholars during the year just closed.

The examination of the several classes was, as usual, thorough, impartial and very satisfactory. No one at all familiar with the studies pursued, and which passed under review during the week of the examination could doubt that great pains had been taken by the Principals and their corps of Teachers, to educate those committed to their guidance and care. They manifested a familiarity with their studies not often seen. This was particularly the case with regard to the graduating class. Very seldom do the senior classes in our colleges show such an acquaintance with Mental and Moral Philosophy, Butler's Analogy and kindred branches as was evident from the examination of this class in these studies.

The commencement exercises consisted of original compositions read, with clearness of tone and in a dignified manner, by their authors, as follows, viz:

Great Discoveries of our Age, by Miss Jane Addy, Monroe; Air Castles, by Miss Frank C. Austin, Monroe; Society, by Miss Josephine P. Cleveland, Chicago; Shakspeare and his Heroines, by Miss Helen Clark, Monroe; American Myths, by Miss V. L. Kelly, Sacramento, Cal.; Coleridge the Philosopher and Poet, by Miss Elizabeth J. Thurber, Monroe; The Beechers, by Miss Estelle Anderson, Monroe.

We do not propose to speak at length of the scientific character of the first, well written as it was; the fanciful, imaginative, sharp style and Attic salt of the second; the carefully composed sketch and the well-matured ideal of society in the third; the classical, truthful and beautiful tribute to the immortal Bard of Avon in the fourth; the touching and appropriate sentiments of the fifth, with its impressive and poetical ending; the strong, wholesome philosophy of the sixth; or the close, analytical and, withal, happy and humorous character of the seventh. They all did well, while some of these productions were of a highly intellectual cast and finish.

The public exercises of the day and the year closed with the conferring of Diplomas upon seven Graduates, and an address from Rev. A. L. Brooks, of your city, on "Character versus Genius." This subject was treated in a very happy manner, and the orator received much praise for the originality of his thoughts, and the striking and beautiful imagery in which they were clothed. The citizens of Monroe will be happy again to welcome Mr. Brooks, and listen to what he has to say.

During the progress of the examination and the Musical Review, we have met the professors, teachers and pupils at the table, at the Seminary, in scenes of domestic intercourse, in the parlors, and at family altar, and we can truly commend the institution as a place where the affections and manners as well as the intellect are cultivated.

The refined manners and the truly lady-like deportment I saw—not affectation of the lady in overwrought manners—made such a happy impression on my mind that it caused me to feel that this was just the place and the institution where I should like a friend educated.

The Musical Review on Tuesday evening, of which I had almost forgotten to speak, was a rich treat of vocal and instrumental music. We found among the players several residents of Chicago, who did our city great honor. They were the Misses Smith, Miss Alice E. Spears, Miss Mattie Noble, and Miss Mary Levington. Some of them were among the best performers—playing on two pianos a grand quartette, and Miss Levington was one of the sweetest singers I heard while at the Seminary. I am truly persuaded that a reflecting community at the West need but know, as I do, this institution, to appreciate and greatly prefer it to sending their daughters East for an education.

Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.

Letter from "Egypt."

Centralia, July 10, 1858.

The traveler who visits Egypt at this season will find something analogous to ancient Egypt, and he will perhaps say unpleasant words about this goodly land. With Cowper he will doubtless sigh:

> "O For a lodge in some vast wilderness,
> Some boundless contiguity of shade."

Or pray with Thomson:

> "All conquering heat, O! intermit thy wrath,
> And on my throbbing temples, potent thus,
> Beam not so fierce."

But Thomson kept a splendid soda fountain, great docks and cooling springs in the wondrous garden of his imagination, and therefore had little reason for complaint. See him take refreshment with a pen stroke:

> "Thrice happy he! who on the sunless side
> Of a romantic mountain, forest crowned,
> Beneath the collected shade reclines;
> Or in the gelid cavern woodbine wrought,
> And fresh bedewed with ever spouting streams,
> Sits coolly calm while all the world without
> Unsatisfied and sick, tosses in noon:
> Emblem instructive of the virtuous man
> Who keeps his tempered mind serene and pure,
> And every passion aptly harmonized
> Amid a jarring world with vice inflamed."

All this is very beautiful; but the facts in the case are as follows: Thermometer 100 degrees in the shade. Air like money, none stirring. The ox, horse and cow have disappeared from the prairie to ruminate in the shade.

Centralia is the most promising railroad town in Southern Illinois. It is pleasant for situation, being in the middle of a large prairie, bordered all around with large groves of timber, abundant and valuable. It is four years since the first building was erected. It has now a population of nearly 3,000, and is steadily inceasing. The dwellings are all neat and commodious, and nearly all painted white—looking as fresh as if they were begun in the morning and finished before noon. The village lots are large, and every resident has room for a garden, play-ground and front yard. Centralia is also a healthy place, as the scarcity of doctors attests. We do not mean to say that this is the result of having a few M. D's.; rather it is healthful and delightful on account of good water, pure air, and well paid labor.

From all appearances, we would say it is a pet child of the Illinois Cen. Railroad—the company having done much to improve and make it what it is. They have built a large round house for engines, a car shop and a shop for repairs, and a magnificent station house, all at an expense of $115,000. The number of hands employed is 150.

The prospects for harvest are not encouraging. Rust has done serious damage to the wheat crop, but as there was twice as much as usual sowed, there will be a large harvest. Other crops are all right. Fruit in the southern counties will be abundant, and we can properly advise the "Jacobs" of the North to come hither for apples and peaches, if they have no occasion for "corn."

The great annual Fair of the State will be held at Centralia, this year. The grounds selected are ample and beautiful, and of course many thousands will assemble here to see the sure tokens of the prosperity of Illinois. After the State Fair we predict that Egypt, or Southern Illinois, will advance its reputation fifty per cent. by advertising all parts of the State in regard to the richness, variety and abundance of its products. The "rainy season" is fully past, and the country has recovered from the effects of the rains that "did prevail forty days and upwards." Through the untiring energy of P. Pease, Esq., Supt. of the Southern Division, and his assistant, the cars on the I. C. R. R. will run to Cairo early next week. A vast amount of freight has been detained which will now go forward at once. Cairo has not suffered materially from the recent floods, and building will go on with the usual rapidity. A heavy levee will soon be constructed, of strength sufficient to resist the wrath of the river-god, who of late played off a moist joke on the citizens of Cairo. We understand that the I. C. R. R. Co. will also encircle the city with their track—thus establishing a boundary which "the waters shall not pass." "'Tis a consummation devoutly to be wished"—for then, a bow will bend around, if not above Cairo, giving satisfactory assurance that it shall not be drowned again.

Fatal Shooting Affray at Monee.

Monee, July 12, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune.

On Saturday evening, about 6 o'clock, the quiet village of Monee, on the Illinois Central Railroad, was thrown into great excitement by the report that John Haskins had been shot by his brother-in-law, Nelson Kinney. The cause for this rash and willful deed is supposed to have been jealousy. The murderer is in custody and an examination was held yesterday. Kinney and Haskins are well known through this part of the country. They have been partners in the plastering and brick-laying business. Haskins died at 7 o'clock yesterday (Sunday) morning, confessing the crime of intimacy with Kinney's wife. T. W. H.

Mr. Corcoran and the Spanish Don.

A Washington dispatch to the New York Tribune, dated the 8th, says:

"Mr. Corcoran, the banker, who was recently insulted by Maragua, Secretary to the Spanish Legation, made complaint to Gen. Cass to-day, and enlisted the services of the Chief of Police; but as the Don had separated himself from the Legation before he attacked Mr. Corcoran, the Secretary of State could do nothing in the matter."

Obituary.

Sudden Death of Herman C. Gilbert.—It is with a feeling of poignant regret that we are compelled to announce the death of Mr. Herman C. Gilbert, the commercial editor of this paper. He was suddenly killed on Central Wharf, a little after noon this day. Some workmen were engaged in removing a platform in front of No. 14 Central Wharf, when Mr. Gilbert happening at the moment on his round of duty, seeing that they were short of help, undertook to assist them. The platform fell in a direction not expected, and a heavy timber struck him on the head, and bore him down to the surface of the wharf, instantly crushing out his brains and causing his death.

In this sudden affliction we have neither time nor will to comment upon the loss we have sustained. Mr. Gilbert leaves a wife and two children to whom his sudden death will be the heaviest affliction which God could send them. In his relations with this paper, for several years past, Mr. Gilbert has been invaluable. His industry and accuracy were proverbial, but we can only mingle our grief with that of those who are more terribly bereaved.—Buffalo Com., 9th.

A Pestilence among Cattle and Deer.

[From the Tallahassee Floridian, July 3d.]

An intelligent and observing gentleman, who has recently travelled through Madison and the adjacent counties of this State, kindly called to see us a few days since, to confirm the painful intelligence of the destruction in those localities of almost countless numbers of cattle and deer from the prevalence of a most singular and unaccountable disease. The earliest settlers of the country have never witnessed anything of the kind before. In many places the woods are thickly strewed with the dead carcasses of both cattle and deer, presenting a most melancholy scene. The mode of attack and the symptoms are both singular and threatening. Stiffness seizes the body and limbs of the animal, making it walk as if badly foundered. The mouth discharges a large quantity of white froth, after which the tongue becomes highly inflamed, swells, and then turns black; when death immediately ensues. The same disease prevails throughout the State, as also in the lower counties of Georgia, where it is attributed to rust, which exists very generally upon vegetation.

When we call to mind the fact that the small grain of this country was almost totally destroyed by the rust, the inference is plausible that the grasses have been affected in the same manner. If so, this is doubtless the poison that has done the mischief. We hope intelligent planters will examine thoroughly with reference to this suggestion, and report through the press the results of such examinations.

Large and frequent doses of sulphur and salt combined are recommended as an excellent remedy for this disease.

What it Costs to Govern New York.

The Herald thus figures up the matter:

Many people may imagine that when we are taxed eight millions a year for the government of this city, only that amount is got rid of by the office holders who govern us. Eight millions of dollars is a pretty large sum for a city so miserably governed as this, yet the revenue which is nominally disbursed by the various departments exceeds that amount a hundred per cent. Let us see first where it comes from, and we may well ask in astonishment afterwards where does it go to?

The actual sum raised by the taxes last year was $8,111,758. In addition to this, $8,345,772, at the lowest estimate, went into the city treasury from other sources; such as interest and dividends on various bonds and stocks, awards, receipts from street openings, ferry rents, rents of markets, wharves and piers, arrears of assessments, interest on taxes, &c. The total receipt of revenue for last year was $16,475,530; the expenditures amounted to $16,280,538—leaving a surplus of $176,992. So that it apparently costs over sixteen millions, instead of eight, to live in New York even such a life as we have here—with dirty streets, rampant rowdyism, scarcity of water, and no parks.

Mortars for Utah.

It is well ascertained that the Mormons have not a single fortified place in the whole length and breadth of their Territory. Yet, as if the splendid regiments, equipped with unlimited supplies of everything that is required in active service, were not enough, several light artillery batteries were added to the United States forces, and in addition to these heavy mortar batteries, followed by wagon load after wagon load of shells. These guns are to be dragged over the plains into a mountainous country, where they cannot be used; where there are no fortified towns, and against a people who, at the most, cannot muster more than two or three old rusty six-pounders, and those destitute of suitable ammunition. This mode of proceedure was, perhaps, a consequence of that wise adage which says—"never underrate the power of your enemy"—and is calculated to strike the beholder with awe, by its display of prescience and power.—Mo. Democrat, 10th.

He "Don't Care."

Senator Douglas says he don't care whether slavery is voted into Kansas or not. So far as he is concerned, he is perfectly indifferent. He does not regard it as a matter of much moment. Let this "don't care" sentiment become general, and how long before the revival of the slave trade will be openly advocated and accomplished? There is no more dangerous leaven working in the public mind to effect the utter downfall of all human rights than this same political heresy, of which Judge Douglas is the head and front. Unless its hypocritical mask is torn off, and its insinuating influence met and resisted, there is no calculating the mischief it will do.—Carlinville Free Democrat.

General Intelligence.

Nicaragua Route.—The Cabinet on Tuesday had under consideration the question of the transit route, and it is said that the President is determined to have the Nicaragua route opened, and to sustain any company that has a valid right. It is understood that the Administration considers the grant of the old American Atlantic and Pacific Ship Canal valid.—Washington Star, 8th.

Mrs. Littles in Sing Sing.—Mrs. Littles, the young woman of Rochester, who assisted her brother to kill her husband, passed through this city yesterday morning, on her way to Sing Sing, where she will be imprisoned seven years, unless pardoned. We are told that she counts rather confidently on being released before the expiration of her term. Her case is a peculiar one. She assisted, if she did not instigate, the murder of her husband, and is to be punished with seven years' transportation, while her accomplice has been found guilty of willful murder.—Albany Argus, 8th.

Damage by the Flood in the South.—The damage to the growing cotton crop, in consequence of the overflows, is now put down at 400,000 bales. The damage to the sugar crop in six parishes in Louisiana is estimated at 47,500 hhds.

DOCTOR HUBBELL'S
OLD ESTABLISHED MEDICAL INFIRMARY,
85 Randolph Street,
Opposite the Revere Hotel, Chicago, Illinois.

ALL DISEASES OF A PRIVATE NATURE confidentially treated, and permanently and speedily cured.

To Young Men and Others.

Nervous Debility and Chronic Diseases, the first and direct consequence of excess and abuse of the sexual system, is a peculiar diseased condition of the seminal organs, which is produced by masturbation. The following disorders, some in one case, some in another, are again the direct consequence of this disease, viz: Seminal Emissions, General Debility and Nervousness, Distaste for Society, Gloomy Presentiments, pain and weakness in the back, impairment of mental vigor and memory, weak and watery eyes, eruptions on the face and body, restlessness or vicious dreams and unrefreshing sleep, unfitness for marriage relation, improper excitability of the organs, stricture, costiveness, piles, dyspepsia, &c.

To the truth of this, more or less in each case, every sufferer from solitary indulgence can attest. And further, any latent or family predisposition to disease, as scrofula, consumption, apoplexy, rheumatism, epilepsy, imbecility, impotence, insanity, &c., is almost surely eventually developed into activity and is actually the most frequent cause of those maladies in young persons, as proved by the statistics of all countries. And this is equally true of both sexes. Still if taken in time this disease and its consequences is perfectly amenable to treatment.

To the young and inexperienced, who need medical treatment or advice, Doctor Hubbell would earnestly say, put not off until to-morrow what concerns you to do to-day. Avoid quacks as you would a pestilence; they abound in this and other cities, but heed not their boasting assumptions or their relying pretentions. Be advised by one whose experience and success entitles him to your confidence. Deal not with ignorant pretenders for their touch is death.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

All those whose health will not admit of becoming mothers, and wishing quiet accommodations until restored, and also to secure the services of one of the most experienced physicians in the United States.

THE "OLD DOMINION" COFFEE POT.—Thousands of this new Coffee Pot, have already been sold, and the demand from all parts of the United States is rapidly on the increase. Wherever introduced, it has given the most complete satisfaction.

THE OLD DOMINION COFFEE POT

Makes better coffee than it is possible to obtain in any other way because, by an ingenious but simple arrangement, the housekeeper may boil her coffee for any length of time without loss of aroma, thus securing all the elements of the coffee in their natural and proportional combinations.

THE OLD DOMINION COFFEE POT

Gives a healthy beverage. Nervous, dyspeptic, and bilious persons who had not dared to use coffee for years, have been able to drink their favorite beverage again when made in this new boiler, and without an occurrence of any of the old unpleasant consequences. It is healthy, because by the use of a condenser, evaporation is prevented, and the coffee can be boiled long enough to release all the natural elements of the berry, and set them in just proportion in the beverage.

THE OLD DOMINION COFFEE POT

Is the most economical, for nothing being lost by evaporation in boiling, one fourth less coffee is required; while the beverage is stronger more, fragrant, and more delicious.

THE OLD DOMINION COFFEE POT

Never fails to do its work right. Cook cannot spoil your cup of coffee by neglect or forgetfulness, after she has placed the boiler on the stove or range.

THE OLD DOMINION COFFEE POT

Is sold Wholesale and Retail, at Manufacturer's prices by THOS. GEORGE & Co.

No. 1 Lake st., Chicago Illinois.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Has Returned.—To persons afflicted with Consumption, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Heart, Female Derangements, and other Chronic Diseases. In compliance with the requests of many of his friends and former patients, Dr. E. Reading has returned from St. Louis on the 1st of July, and will remain at his rooms in Chicago, two months only, previous to going to New Orleans. He is the founder of a new system of treatment for these diseases, which has proved, in this city as well as others, to be the most scientific and successful one now before the public. Knowing that the country is filled with various kinds of nostrum—venders whose unscrupulous course has prejudiced the public against improvement in medicines, cordially invites unprejudiced physicians and invalids to call and examine his system of treatment, (as it cannot be readily explained in print,) and judge of its merits for themselves. He will show letters from eminent physicians and others who have witnessed the great efficacy of his treatment, and who testify to his skill from personal knowledge. All persons placing themselves under his treatment during his present visit, will receive further attention, after his departure, from his partner, Dr. A. J. Mead, who will remain permanently in their rooms.

N. B.—Immediate attention is called to the above, as it will be impossible for the Doctor to extend his stay longer than two months on account of previous arrangements; and visitors are cautioned not to mistake his place of business. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.

☞ Consultations free.

Beware of Impostors.—Caution to Invalids.—Dr. Samuel S. Fitch, (Office 714 Broadway, New York,) known as the author of a "New Curative Treatment" for the diseases of the Lungs, Heart, Liver, Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys, Skin, Nerves, Muscles, Joints, Blood, &c., and for all Female Complaints, continues his practice with his usual success. ☞ He is never absent from New York, and has not been for many years. He has no other office, nor any associate or partner at Buffalo, Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburg or elsewhere, and has not had. ☞ Beware of all persons using his name, or pretending to have now or to have had, any professional connection with him! They are impostors!! Apply, personally or by letter, directly to himself at his office, 714 Broadway, New York, where alone his treatment can be had. Remedies sent to any part of the country, and treatment conducted successfully by letter. A visit from the patient preferred. His "Six Lectures" on the Lungs, and explaining the method by which he cures the above disease (180 pages bound) sent by mail, post paid, for 40 cents.

☞ Among the Many Preparations now before the public as certain cures for the Fever and Ague, none have been received with such especial favor as that known as DR. J. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. This tonic has been circulated and its many virtues promulgated throughout the States, and every day the proprietors are greeted with the intelligence of some dreadful case vanquished by the use of their celebrated "Bitters." In our principal cities, there are but few families who neglect the Bitters in furnishing their medicine closets. As a tonic it is both mild and agreeable to the taste, and stimulating in its action upon the system. For a certain cure for the Fever and Ague, Flatulency, Dyspepsia, and all other morbid diseases, it is pure and unequalled.

For sale by Druggists, and dealers generally, everywhere. je21 1m

Charles' London Cordial Gin.—The Original and only London Gin Imported. This Gin, distilled in London from sound Barley under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the Vegetable Kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent medical men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic drink in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, the Kidneys and the Bowels, Nervous Debility, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to settlers in the Southern and Western States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and pints thirty-eight cents, by all Druggists, Grocers, Fruiterers, and Country Merchants. Beware of Imitations. Buy only CHARLES'. NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Chicago, Ill., of PENTON, ROBINSON & SMITH, No. 15 South Water street; HAVENS, TYRRELL & CO., No. 57 South Water street.

The most sceptical people can be convinced by trial that all the family medicines are not humbug, and that among the thousand of butterfly life, there are a few of good merit and undoubted worth. Of these, Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, stands first and foremost among the remedies of the day that can be relied on as a medicine that is all it is recommended by its proprietors. It advertises itself on every trial, for there are none who use it but tell their friends to do so, and so it goes from mouth to mouth, till all the people of the Union have learned the good of this truly valuable medicine. It is recommended, with testimonials to prove its virtue, for the cure of liver complaints of every kind, from the worst Dyspepsia to a common headache, and is particularly adapted to Jaundice, Deranged Stomach, Bowel Complaints, and diseases of children. (See advertisement. je14-1m Sawyer's Fluid Extract of Bark, an infallible remedy for the Fever and Ague, and the various forms of Bilious Diseases, Intermittent, Remittent, Chill Fever, and Dumb Ague, having their origin in malaria of very fertile and marshy districts, prepared by Dr. S. S. Sawyer, Druggist and Chemist, and sold by Sawyer Paige & Co. No. 16 Lake st., Chicago.

This remedy is prepared entirely from vegetable substances and contains no mercury, arsenic, or anything that ever prove injurious to the system. Its effects are those of a deobstruent and tonic, well adapted to restore the healthy action of the Liver and Stomach, whose functions are so generally impaired in this class of diseases.

Quinine and other tonics serve only in many cases to break the chills, but do not remove the diseases of the liver and other organs implicated, on which the chill and fever depend; hence the usefulness of the "Fluid Extract of Bark," (particularly in regions where Physicians can not readily be consulted,) which contains all the qualities suited to the indications of these maladies.

Hundreds of testimonials in regard to the efficacy of this medicine, from persons of respectability, have been given to the proprietor—but he does not make use of them as he prefers to have the medicine introduce itself securely by its merits.

AN ENGLISH COLONY

IN PERIL FROM PIRATES!

Extraordinary Adventures and Wonderful Escapes!

The rest of us men—meaning Mr. Macey, Mr. Fisher, two of my comrades of the Marines, and five of the sloop's crew—were, making allowance for a little smarting in our wounds, in tolerable health, and not half so much broken in spirit by troubles, past, present, and to come, as some persons might be apt to imagine. As for the seamen, especially, no stranger who looked at their jolly brown faces would ever have imagined that they were prisoners, and in peril of their lives. They sat together, chewing their quids, and looking out good-humoredly at the sea, like a gang of liberty-men resting themselves on shore. "Take it easy, soldier," says one of the six, seeing me looking at him. "And, if you can't do that, take it as easy as you can." I thought, at the time, that many a wiser man might have given me less sensible advice than this, though it was only offered by a boatswain's mate.

A movement among the Pirates attracted my notice to the beach below us, and I saw their Captain approaching our halting-place, having changed his fine clothes for garments that were fit to travel in.

His coming back to us had the effect of producing unmistakable signs of preparation for a long journey. Shortly after he appeared, three Indians came up, leading three loaded mules; and these were followed, in a few minutes, by two of the Sambos, carrying between them a copper full of smoking meat and broth. After having been shared among the Pirates, this mess was set down before us, with some wooden bowls floating about in it, to dip out the food with. Seeing that we hesitated before touching it, the Pirate Captain recommended us not to be too mealy-mouthed, as that was meat from our own stores on the Island, and the last we were likely to taste for a long time to come. The sailors, without any more ado about it, professed their readiness to follow this advice, muttering among themselves, that good meat was a good thing, though the devil himself had cooked it. The Pirate Captain then, observing that we were all ready to accept the food, ordered the bonds that confined the hands of us men to be loosened and cast off, so that we might help ourselves. After we had served the women and children, we fell to. It was a good meal—though I can't say that I myself had much appetite for it. Jack, to use his own phrase, stowed away a double allowance. The jolly faces of the seamen lengthened a good deal, however, when they found there was nothing to drink afterwards but plain water. One of them, a fat man, named Short, went so far as to say that, in the turn things seemed to have taken, he should like to make his will before we started, as the stoppage of his grog and the stoppage of his life were two events that would occur uncommonly close together.

When we had done, we were all ordered to stand up. The Pirates approached me and the other men, to bind our arms again; but, the Captain stopped them.

"No," says he. "I want them to get on at a good pace; and they will do that best with their arms free. Now, prisoners," he continued, addressing us, "I don't mean to have any lagging on the road. I have fed you up with good meat, and you have no excuse for not stepping out briskly—women, children, and all. You men are without weapons and without food, and you know nothing of the country you are going to travel through. If you are mad enough, in this helpless condition, to attempt escaping on the march, you will be shot, as sure as you all stand there,—and if the bullet misses, you will starve to death in forests that have no path and no end."

Having addressed us in those words, he turned again to his men. I wondered then, as I had wondered once or twice already, what those private reasons might be, which he had mentioned in his written paper, for sparing the lives of us male prisoners. I hoped he would refer to them now—but I was disappointed.

"While the country allows it," he went on, addressing his crew, "march in a square, and keep the prisoners inside. Whether it is man, woman, or child, shoot any one of them who tries to escape, on peril of being shot yourselves if you miss. Put the Indians and mules in front, and the Sambos next to them. Draw up the prisoners all together. Tell off seven men to march before them, and seven more for each side; and leave the other nine for the rear guard. A fourth mule for me, when I get tired, and another Indian to carry my guitar."

His guitar! To think of the murderous thief having a turn for strumming tunes, and wanting to cultivate it on such an expedition as ours! I could hardly believe my eyes when I saw the guitar brought forward in a neat green case, with the piratical skull and cross-bones, and the Pirate Captain's initials painted on it in white.

"I can stand a good deal," whispers Tom Packer to me, looking hard at the guitar; "but confound me, Davis, if it's not a trifle too much to be taken prisoner by such a fellow as that!"

The Pirate Captain lights another cigar.

"March!" says he, with a schreech like a cat, and a flourish with his sword, of the sort that a stage-player would give at the head of a mock army.

We all moved off, leaving the clump of trees to the right, going, we knew not whither, to unknown sufferings and an unknown fate. The land that lay before us was wild and open, without fences or habitations. Here and there cattle wandered about over it, and a few stray Indians. Beyond, in the distance, as far as we could see, rose a prospect of mountains and forests. Above us, was the pitiless sun, in a sky that was too brightly blue to look at. Behind us was the calm murmuring ocean, with the dear island home which the women and children had lost, rising in the distance like a little green garden on the bosom of the sea. After half-an-hour's walking, we began to descend into the plain, and the last glimpse of the Island of Silver-Store disappeared from our view.

The order of march which we prisoners now maintained among ourselves, being the order which, with certain occasional variations, we observed for the next three days, I may as well give some description of it in this place, before I get occupied with other things, and forget it.

I, myself, and the sailor I have mentioned under the name of Short, led the march. After us came Miss Maryon, and Mr. and Mrs. Macey. They were followed by two of my comrades of the marines, with Mrs. Pordage, Mrs. Belltott, and two of the strongest of the ladies to look after them. Mr. Fisher, the ship's boy, and the three remaining men of the sloop's crew, with the rest of the women and children came next; Tom Packer, taking charge of Serjeant Drooce, brought up the rear. So long as we got on quickly enough, the pirates showed no disposition to interfere with our order of march; but if there was any signs of lagging—and God knows it was hard enough work, for a man to walk under that burning sun!—the villains threatened the weakest of our company with the points of their swords. The younger among the children gave out, as might have been expected, poor things, very early in the march. Short and I set the example of taking two of them up, pick-a-back, which was followed directly by the rest of the men. Two of Mrs. Macey's three children fell to our share—the eldest traveling behind us on his father's back. Short hoisted the next in age, a girl, on his broad shoulders. I see him now, as if it was yesterday, with the perspiration pouring down his fat face and bushy whiskers, rolling along as if he was on the deck of a ship, and making a sling of his neck-handkerchief with his clever sailor fingers, to support the little girl on his back.

"I expect you'll marry me, my darling, when you grow up," says he, in his oily, joking voice. And the poor child, in her innocence, laid her weary head down on his shoulder, and gravely, and faithfully promised that she would.

A lighter weight fell to my share. I had the youngest of the children, the pretty little boy, already mentioned, who had been deaf and dumb from his birth. His mother's voice trembled sadly as she thanked me for taking him up, and tenderly put his dress right while she walked behind me.

"He is very little and light of his age," says the poor lady, trying hard to speak steady. "He won't give you much trouble, Davis—he has always been a very patient child from the first." The boy's little frail arms clasped themselves round my neck while she was speaking; and something or other seemed to stop in my throat the cheerful answer that I wanted to make. I walked on with what must have looked, I am afraid, like a gruff silence; the poor child humming softly on my back, in his unchanging, dumb way, till he hummed himself to sleep. Often and often, since that time, in dreams, I have felt those small arms round my neck again, and have heard that dull murmuring song in my ear, dying away, fainter and fainter, till nothing was left but the light breath rising and falling regularly on my cheek, telling me that my little fellow-prisoner had forgotten his troubles in sleep.

We marched, as well as I could guess, somewhere about seven miles that day—a short spell enough, judging by distance, but a terrible long one, judging by heat. Our halting place was by the banks of a stream, across which, at a little distance, some wild pigs were swimming as we came up. Beyond us, was the same view of forests and mountains that I have already mentioned; and all round us, was a perfect wilderness of flowers. The shrubs the bushes, the ground, all blazed again with magnificent colors, under the evening sun. When we were ordered to halt, wherever we set a child down, there that child had laps and laps full of flowers, growing within reach of its hand. We sat on flowers, eat on flowers, slept at night on flowers—any chance handful of which would have been worth a golden guinea among the gentlefolks in England. It was a sight not easily described, to see niggers, savages and pirates, hideous, filthy and ferocious in the last degree to look at, squatting about grimly upon a natural carpet of beauty, of the sort that is painted in pictures with pretty fairies dancing on it.

The mules were unloaded, and left to roll among the flowers to their hearts' content. A neat tent was set up for the Pirate Captain, at the door of which, after eating a good meal, he laid himself down in a languishing attitude, with a nosegay in the bosom of his waistcoat, and his guitar on his knees, and jingled away at the strings, singing foreign songs with a shrill voice and with his nose conceitedly turned up in the air. I was obliged to caution Short and the sailors—or they would, to a dead certainty, have put all our lives in peril by openly laughing at him.

We had but a poor supper that night. The Pirates now kept the provisions they had brought from the Island, for their own use; and we had to share the miserable starvation diet of the country, with the Indians and the Sambos. This consisted of black beans fried, and of things they call Tortillas, meaning, in plain English, flat cakes made of crushed Indian corn, and baked on a clay griddle. Not only was this food insipid, but the dirty manner in which the Indians prepared it, was disgusting. However, complaint was useless, for we could see for ourselves that no other provision had been brought for the prisoners. I heard some grumbling among our men, and some little fretfulness among the children, which their mothers soon quieted. I myself was indifferent enough to the quality of the food; for I had noticed a circumstance just before it was brought to us, which occupied my mind with more serious considerations. One of the mules was unloaded near us, and I observed among the baggage, a large bundle of new axes, doubtless taken from some ship. After puzzling my brains for some time to know what they could be wanted for, I came to the conclusion that they were to be employed in cutting our way through, when we came to the forests. To think of the kind of traveling which these preparations promised—if the view I took of them was the right one—and then to look at the women and children, exhausted by the first day's march, was sufficient to make any man uneasy. It weighed heavily enough on my mind, I know, when I woke up among the flowers, from time to time, that night.

Our sleeping arrangements, though we had not a single civilized comfort, were, thanks to the flowers, simple and easy enough. For the first time in their lives, the women and children laid down together, with the sky for a roof, and the kind earth for a bed. We men shook ourselves down, as well as we could, all round them; and the Pirates, relieving guard regularly, ranged themselves outside of all. In that tropical climate, and at that hot time, the night was only pleasantly cool. The babbling of the stream, and, now and then, the course of the breeze through the flowers, was all we heard. During the hours of darkness, it occurred to me—and I have no doubt the same idea struck my comrades—that a body of determined men, making a dash for it, might now have stood a fair chance of escaping. We were still near enough to the sea-shore to be certain of not losing our way; and the plain was almost as smooth, for a good long run, as a natural race-course. However, the mere act of dwelling on such a notion, was waste of time and thought, situated as we were with regard to the women and children. They were, so to speak, the hostages who insured our submission to captivity, or to any other hardship that might be inflicted on us; a result which I have no doubt the Pirate Captain had foreseen, when he made us all prisoners together on taking possession of the Island.

We were roused up at four in the morning, to travel on before the heat set in; our march under yesterday's broiling sun having been only undertaken for the purpose of getting us away from the sea-shore, and from possible help in that quarter, without loss of time. We forded the stream, wading through it waist-deep, except the children who crossed on our shoulders. An hour before noon, we halted under two immense wild cotton-trees, about half a mile from a little brook, which probably ran into the stream we had passed in the morning. Late in the afternoon we were on foot again, and encamped for the night at three deserted huts, built of mud and poles. There were the remains of an enclosure here, intended, as I thought, for cattle; and there was an old well, from which our supply of water was got. The greater part of the women were very tired and sorrowful that night; but Miss Maryon did wonders in cheering them up.

On the third morning, we began to skirt he edge of a mountain, carrying our store of water with us from the well. We men prisoners had our full share of the burden. What with that, what with the way being all uphill, and what with the necessity of helping on the weaker members of our company, that day's march was the hardest I remember to have ever got through. Towards evening, after resting again in the middle of the day, we stopped for the night on the verge of the forest. A dim, lowering, awful sight it was, to look up at the mighty wall of trees stretching in front, and on either side of us without a limit and without a break. Through the night, though there was no wind blowing over our encampment, we heard deep, moaning, rushing sounds rolling about, at intervals, in the great inner wilderness of leaves; and, now and then, those among us who slept, were startled up by distant crashes in the depths of the forest—the death-knells of falling trees. We kept fires alight, in case of wild animals stealing out on us in the darkness; and the flaring red light, and the thick, winding smoke, alternately showed and hid the forest-prospect in a strangely treacherous and ghostly way. The children shuddered with fear; even the Pirate Captain forgot, for the first time, to jingle his eternal guitar.

When we were mustered in the morning for the march, I fully expected to see the axes unpacked. To my surprise they were not disturbed. The Indians drew their long chopping-knives (called machetes in the language of that country); made for a place among the trees where I could see no signs of a path; and began cutting at the bushes and shrubs, and at the wild vines and creepers, twirling down together in all sorts of fantastic forms, from the lofty branches. After clearing a few dozen yards inwards they came out to us again, whooping and showing their wicked teeth, as they laid hold of the mules' halters to lead them on. The Pirate Captain, before we moved after, took out a pocket compass, set it, pondered over it for some time, shrugged his shoulders, and screeched out "March," as usual. We entered the forest, leaving behind us the last chance of escape, and the last hope of ever getting back to the regions of humanity and civilization. By this time, we had walked inland, as nearly as I could estimate, about thirty miles.

TO THE LADIES
And Mercantile Community.

AT THE EARNEST SOLICITATION OF thousands of the citizens of Chicago, COOK & BRO., the great and world-renowned Chemical Dyers and Scourers, have been induced to open a branch of their business at

No. 123 South Clark Street,

For the purpose of carrying on the above business all its branches. Their Dye Works are the most extensive and complete west of New York, by introducing the Paris and New York modern systems of Steam Dyeing and Finishing. They have also employed the services of the great and celebrated French Chemist and Dyer, Prof. J. Lawson, who will superintend the Ladies' and Mercantile dyeing and finishing department. Every description of ladies' silks, satin, woolen shawls and dresses, curtains, hearth-rugs, table covers, riding habits, &c., are dyed and cleaned and restored to their original perfection.

N. B.—Their mode of cleaning and bleaching white crape shawls, is acknowledged by Prof. H. Mason, Chemist and Dyer of Mass., to be unsurpassable. Lace curtains are also bleached and made to look like new. All orders from the country promptly executed and warranted.

N. B.—Gentlemen's coats, vests and pants are dyed, cleaned and neatly repaired by their great and original chemical process. Call and examine their samples of Dyeing and Finishing. Ladies' department No. 123½, and Gents' department 123, South Clark street, Chicago.

Pure Milk! Pure Milk!

THE UNDERSIGNED IS RECEIVING daily, and offering for sale, PURE MILK from the dairies owned by the following named men in Elgin and vicinity: S. J. Kimball, Dea. Luther Herrick, S. P. Burdick, P. H. Smith, N. Ballard, General O. Wilcox, C. Knox, Cyrus H. Larkin, J. J. Cook, A. C. Buckin, D. C. Adams, M. Sherman, H. Sherman, J. R. McLean, J. Salisbury; all of which are well known by the old citizens or residents of Chicago, as being amongst the best and most reliable farmers in Northern Illinois. Their cows are kept upon tame grasses and grain and roots raised upon their farms, and kept at pasture in summer, and are perfectly healthy. We challenge investigation, and any one is at liberty to examine our Milk at any time. And we pledge ourselves to pay TEN Dollars a quart for all the swill or impure Milk that we have or may sell. I. H. WANZER.
Chicago, June 17th, 1858.

We are well acquainted with the above named farmers, and know that their dairies are kept as well and healthy as any dairies in Illinois that we are acquainted with; and believe that the owners would not, under any circumstances, be guilty of selling impure Milk. And we are well satisfied that Messrs. Wanzer & Co., who sell Milk from their dairies, sell nothing but such Milk as they receive from said dairies.
E. J. COLBY,
A. J. JOSLYN,
B. W. RAYMOND.

MR. I. H. WANZER: Yes, I am more than willing to add my testimony to the evidence of Elder Joslyn, Esq. Colby, ex-Mayor Raymond, and others.

"Do I know these men who furnish the milk you sell?" Sir, I have known them from the start. Eighteen years ago we were "squatters" side by side on what was then the "public domain," but what is now their farms, covered with cultivated grasses. I know that their cows "live in clover," and retain that caudatory appendage their city cousins kept in distilleries so commonly forego; that their dairy fixtures and appurtenances exhibit proof, that in the country cleanliness is considered a cardinal virtue; that the milk reaches you via the C. & G. U. "milky way"—cool, sweet and pure.

"What am I willing to say to this community of you?" Why, that you are Kane county boys, reared in the rural districts—Nature's noblemen—and that I believe you as incapable of adulterating milk as of poisoning children in any other way. EDW'D W. BREWSTER.

N. B. I hold myself responsible for no milk except my own. That can be had of wagons No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 8, marked "Elgin Dairy, I. H. Wanzer."

WELLS' SCHOOL GRAMMAR.

A Grammar of the English Language, for the use of Schools. By W. H. Wells, A. M., Superintendent Public Schools, Chicago, and late Principal State Normal School, Westfield, Mass. Thoroughly revised and enlarged. Price, 38 cents.

This work has had extraordinary success—having passed through nearly Three Hundred Editions. It has been carefully revised, and collated with the latest authorities, and is now offered as one of the clearest, most available and practical Grammars in use. Though improved and enlarged, the work can been used in connection with the previous edition—which is also published by us.

From a mass of testimonials, we can select but a few from sources which will be recognised as authoritative as to the merits of such a work.

Prof. Chester Dewey, D.D., LL.D., Rochester University, writes: "It is a great improvement on all that are studied in our schools and academies, and teaches the knowledge of the language in a practical manner easier to the teacher and more improving to the pupil."

Prof. D. Howe Allen, D.D., Lane Seminary, Cincinnati, writes: "I prefer Wells' Grammar to any other I have seen. Indeed, Mr. Wells has embodied in his admirable work everything that can be desired in an elementary treatise."

Prof. N. Porter, D.D., Yale College, in an elaborate review, says: "This is an admirable School Grammar. We think it will be acknowledged by all to be the best which has hitherto appeared."

Pres. Andrews, D.D., Marietta, O., writes: "It is decidedly superior to any other work of the kind that has fallen under my notice."

Prof. A. Carroll, Charleston Academy, Ills., writes: "I notice particularly its good arrangement; comprehensive, new, concise and explicit statement of principles; and last, but not least, the care manifested in selecting the examples for illustration. I use your Grammar as authority in my classes in English Analysis."

BOTANY FOR YOUNG PEOPLE, and Common Schools. How Plants Grow, a simple introduction to structural Botany, with a Popular Flora, or an arrangement and description of common Plants, both wild and cultivated. Illustrated by 500 wood engravings. By Asa Gray, M. D., Fisher Professor of Natural History in Harvard University. Price 75 cents.

The above volumes will be sent by mail prepaid to any address in the United States, on remitting the price to the publishers.

CYCLOPEDIA OF WIT AND HUMOR.

Comprising a unique collection of complete articles, and specimens of Written Humor from celebrated humorists of America, England, Ireland and Scotland, illustrated with upwards of 600 original designs and 24 portraits from steel plates. Edited by William E. Burton, the celebrated Comedian. 2 vols, 8vo. Cloth $7.00.

The aim of this work is to furnish to all who would seek, in the brilliant fancies of the humorist, a relaxation from the cares of business, or a resource to enliven hours of dullness, or who would peruse, with an appreciating eye, the writings of the most gifted humorous authors who have enlivened the English language by their wit and humor; to furnish to all, in short, who love a genial and lively book, such a selection as shall satisfy their mirth-craving nature.

We do not see how any lover of humorous literature can help buying it.—Philadelphia Pennsylvanian.

HOUSEHOLD EDITION OF WAVERLY NOVELS.

To be complete in 48 vols. Price per vol. in cloth 75 cents; half calf, $1.75; full calf, $2.50. Printed on the finest paper, from clear and beautiful type. Its size is portable and convenient, being of 16mo form, and is the most beautiful edition published.

Says the Boston transcript: "It is the most desirable edition ever offered to the public."

Says the Daily Advertiser: "Indeed the excellence of this edition cannot be disputed."

Says the Boston Post: "What library is complete without a copy of the Waverly Novels, and the household without them lacks an inexhaustible fountain of instruction and delight. We have seen the volumes as published, and beautiful specimens of printing they are and most worthy to be called the Household Edition."

Private Medical Aid.
JUST PUBLISHED,

THE UNFORTUNATE'S GUIDE, GIVING directions where to obtain Medical aid, and containing astounding facts and thrilling and interesting information never before in print. By Doctor WM. THOMSON. Price twelve cents. Upon the receipt of four postage stamps the book shall be forwarded free from observation, to any address in the United States or Canadas. The unfortunate should be PARTICULAR in selecting his physician, as it is a lamentable, yet incontrovertible fact, that many syphilitic patients are made miserable with ruined constitutions by mal-treatment from inexperienced physicians in GENERAL PRACTICE; for it is a point generally conceded by the best syphilographers, that the study and management of these complaints should engross the whole time of those who would be competent and successful in their treatment and cure. The inexperienced general practitioner having neither opportunity nor time to make himself sufficiently acquainted with their pathology, commonly pursues one system of treatment, in most cases making an indiscriminate use of the antiquated and dangerous weapon, MERCURY.

More caution, however, should be used by the syphilitic patient, in consulting nominal physicians of the advertising class, as nine-tenths of them are impostors who assume French and other names, and are without any claims to medical knowledge. These knavish rascals infest all large cities, and by means of their lying advertisements and posters, induce the unwary into their OFFICES, which are more dangerous to enter than Peter Funk shops, for they not only extort from the applicants what money they can, but poison them with mercury.

Dr. T. has practiced in Europe, Asia, Africa and America, and he is the only liberally educated and legitimately qualified physician in Chicago, who makes the treatment of these diseases a specialty. Dr. T. has practiced over thirty-one years, during which time he collected at great expense, the beautiful and life-like models which compose his Grand Anatomical, Pathological, Surgical and Microscopic Museum adjoining his office, where all his patients are admitted free of charge—No. 299 Lake street, Chicago, Ill. Box 72 PostOffice.

☞ Persons living at a distance in the country, are more apt to be duped by the lying notices of quacks, than citizens. je2

LIQUORS.

G. SIMONDS,
Sole Proprietor and Manufacturer of Pure
OHIO CATAWBA BRANDY.

THIS BRANDY HAS BEEN MANUFACTURED for several years from the pure juice of the Catawba Grape, thus affording additional evidence of the progress of American enterprise and industry, and of our ability to produce articles at home equal to those made by any other nation.

The Ohio Catawba Brandy not only equals but excels the best Imported Brandies, in purity and flavor. It is in fact the best Brandy known. This statement is fully corroborated by the certificates of our most distinguished analytical chemists.

The want of pure Brandy has long been felt in this country, and the introduction of an article of such quality as to supersede the sale and use of those vile compounds hitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded a great public good. The Catawba Brandy possesses all the good qualities claimed for the best imported liquors, and is of perfect purity and superior flavor, and a sovereign and sure remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Cramp, Colic, Languor, Low Spirits, General Debility, &c.

NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

LAKE FOREST HOUSE.—THIS HOUSE, beautifully situated on the grounds of Lind University, twenty-six miles from the city and on the shore of Lake Michigan, is now open to receive visitors. It is furnished and will be kept in a style equal to the first class watering houses on the seaboard, and affords an excellent opportunity for spending the hot season where pure air, good water and good living are desired. Accommodation trains leave the Chicago and Milwaukee Depot at 5½ P. M., and returning, pass the Lake Forest at 7½ A. M. Commutation tickets can be obtained, making it cheaper to board than in the city.

COMMERCIAL.

Commercial and Money Matters.

MONDAY EVENING, July 12, 1858.

MONEY, EXCHANGE, &c.—The money market partakes of the general dullness, and there are no changes whatever to record. We have therefore to resume former quotations, viz: Exchange steady at 1 per cent. Bank discount rates as usual at 10 per cent. Money plenty for all legitimate business transactions. Gold 1@1¼ per cent. premium. In the street and among the note brokers rates are nominal at 1½@2½ per cent. per month. Little doing.

COMMERCIAL.—The Canada was telegraphed this evening, having been boarded off Cape Race by the agent of the Associated Press. She brings Liverpool dates to the 3d inst. Flour is reported 6d higher, and wheat had advanced 1@2d. The breadstuffs market was firm on account of drought on the continent of Europe.

The steamer Fulton was telegraphed this morning with Liverpool dates to the 30th ult. Flour was reported steady and prices were unchanged. Wheat was firm, with an advance of 1d—red being quoted at 5s 4d@6s. Yellow corn, 34s; white do, 32s 6d.

The steamer's news had a good effect on the wheat market and an advance of fully two cents was obtained. No. 2 spring opened at 60c in store, but advanced before the close to 61c—only small parcels being obtainable. No. 1 was in good demand at 67c in store. Rejected quiet at 50½c. The sales of the day do not exceed 20,000 bushels. Corn was in fair demand, with sales of about 50,000 bushels at 46c for good canal and common river; 41@42c for warm and hot do; 45@45½c for No. 1 in store; 39@40c for No. 2 in store; 37c for rejected in store, and 42c f. o. b. for a cargo. Oats were active and advanced to 31c in store—sales ranging from 30½c to 31c. Rye in request, with sales at 51@52½c in store. Barley quiet at 38c in store for No. 1. Highwines are firm at 20c. Wool in active request at a shade better prices. Hides steady.

Freights were dull and a shade lower to-day. A propellor takes Oats to Buffalo at 3½c, and Corn at 5c; a barque, 3c for Oats to Buffalo.

In noticing yesterday several cargoes of wheat shipped East in apparently good condition, we ought to have noticed that of the schr Petrel. It was an excellent-looking cargo of Wheat, and was shipped by one of the heaviest buyers in this market, and a good judge of wheat.

THE COMING CROPS—WHEAT RUSTING.

A few days ago we received from Mr. Rea, of Rock Island, a few samples of Spring Wheat taken from fields growing in Winnebago County. The wheat was exhibited on 'Change. It was blighted and rusted—and conveyed the idea that, if the samples were fair, the fields from which they were taken would prove worthless.

This morning, Mr. Godfrey, of Rockford, arrived here with some more samples. One was taken from the farm of J. W. Seaverns, one from C. H. Spafford's, one from Mr. Johns', and one from Mr. Dunshee's. As these samples were larger, the members of the Board of Trade had a better opportunity of judging of the quality of the wheat. Some of it was blighted, and all of it was more or less rusty. Mr. Gilbert assured the Board that they were fair samples of the fields from which they were taken; and that the owners of the fields did not expect them to be worth cutting.

A sample of rusty and blighted Spring Wheat was also exhibited from McHenry Co. It was not as bad as the Winnebago County wheat, but it was very poor looking stuff.

We also learn from Julian S. Rumsey, Esq., President of the Board of Trade, who has just returned from a tour along the line of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, that a large portion of the wheat which he examined was very much damaged with rust and blight. The farmers were considerably discouraged, and they were holding on to what is left of the old crop. The corn crop looks well.

This evening we find on our table three samples of spring wheat from Ogle County, sent to H. A. Brayton, Esq., from Mr. Haldane, of the above county. They are represented by Mr. B. to be "a fair sample of the wheat in Ogle County," and we have every confidence in that gentleman's observations and integrity. The samples are respectively labelled "Montreal Wheat," "Missouri Wheat," and "Canada Club." They have all been nearly destroyed by blight and rust—the "Canada Club" being apparently the worst sample of the lot. It is not more than a week since we published a letter from Mr. Haldane, in which he gave quite favorable accounts of this same wheat.

The following are some letters which we have received from various quarters:

GALESBURG, July 10, 1858.

To the Editors of the Chicago Press and Tribune:

The farmers hereabouts have all "gone to grass." Hay is the only good crop. In Woodford, Tazewell, Fulton, Peoria and Knox Counties, through which I have just passed, the wheat, Winter and Spring, (excepting the latter in Knox County), is badly struck with rust. Many pieces will not be harvested. Oats equally bad; corn, with the favor of a good fall, cannot be more than half the usual yield. This sudden blighting of prospects is sorely felt by our farmers. They say no time in this State so discouraging as the present—probably somewhat on the principle that the "sky is highest over our heads."

Our farmers greatly miss it in not caring better for their corn, when once harvested. A large quantity of damaged corn is now going to market; Corn that has for six or eight months stood in cribs, twelve feet square, and without cover. In narrow cribs, with proper ventilation and covers, the most of the deficiently ripened crop of last year would have been worth fifteen per cent. more in market.

Yours, &c., A. S. KEDZIE.

BUDA, Bureau Co., July 10, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

I noticed in the PRESS of the 3d inst., that you wished information in regard to the prospect of crops, from all sections of the country. This information I furnish, you with pleasure, so far as I am able.

Spring Wheat (there was but very little Fall Wheat sown in this section) with the present prospect in view will hardly be an average crop. The prospect was very promising till the recent hot weather commenced, which, together with an occasional shower, has had the effect of rusting many pieces very badly, and I am also informed that there is occasionally a piece that looks very fine, but upon examination proves to be entirely worthless, the heads being minus the berries;—cause unknown, but I believe it is generally attributed to the extremely hot weather and showers we have had within the past two weeks, producing a kind of blight. Harvest will commence here about the 20th of this month; that is, the principal part of Spring Wheat will probably be sufficiently ripe to commence upon about that time.

Oats—But very few sown in this section, but there will undoubtedly be a fair crop, as they are less liable than Wheat to be affected by hot weather and rain. The Corn crop never looked more promising than it does at present, and should nothing happen to it there will be a rich harvest. Bureau County can't be beat for raising big Corn. The Potatoe crop bids fair to be as good as usual.

Fruit—Will be but very little in this section. More anon. Yours very truly,

GEO. S. EMERSON.

BELOIT, Wis., July 10, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

Rock County, Wisconsin, promises an abundant harvest this year. It would seem as though Wheat could not promise more; and even the Corn, for which we have had such fears, will come on in time. It is thought by many to give nearly an average yield.

Wheat is now selling in Beloit at 55 to 60 cents. There is but little, however, coming in just now, as the farmers are too busy with haying.

Yours, ROCK.

Editors Chicago Press and Tribune:

In a recent trip through the State of Michigan, I found the crops everywhere looking well, especially the Wheat and Grass. Corn, although backward, seemed to bid fair to come forward, and be considerable of a crop in due time. Conversing with a number of individuals from different parts of the State, portions that did not come under my personal observation, I should judge that nothing is to be wanting of the products of the earth this year in the Peninsular State.

Yours, QUOD.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, July 9.

The week past has brought such changes as to require a correction of my former report of crop prospects. Wheat in this part of Iowa may now be reported, take the whole together, as hardly worth harvesting; a great deal will not be cut. Oats the same. All the grain, and even in some instances the grass, growing upon flat lands, is struck with rust, the straw being so dead as to hardly hold sheaves together when used for bundles. Many oat fields never will head at all. C. DUNHAM, Editor Hawk-Eye.

QUINCY, July 8, 1858.

Editors Chicago Press and Tribune.

WHEAT—There was an unusual quantity of fall seed planted in Adams and Hancock counties last fall and the yield will be large—larger than the two last seasons. The fall wheat has been but slightly damaged by the rust, but as the reapers are now in the fields it will be harvested without much loss. The Spring wheat, which will not mature until later, will be considerably damaged, but not entirely destroyed; the excessive rains followed by a parching sun must operate very materially upon grain to ripen after this date. We are, however, confident that more than a half crop, if not an average one, will be realized. In consequence of the great uncertainty attending the growth of fall wheat the farmers in nearly all the counties of the Military District have turned their attention to the Spring grain, and the seed brought from Canada, and other points North, secure to them a more sure and profitable crop.

CORN—The late rains prevented planting until after the middle of June. There has been a large quantity planted, and it now looks very promising.

RYE AND BARLEY—Considerable quantity of each sown, and a large yield will be the result. It is not affected unfavorably in any way, and the quality will be very good.

The HAY crop is very good, better than we have had for many years. A very few fields in this section have been visited by the army worm, but they do not affect the crop generally. J. T. MORTON, Editor Whig and Republican.

THE NEW SYSTEM OF WHEAT INSPECTION.

The following letter is from an intelligent grain dealer in Warren County:

MONMOUTH, Waren County, Ill., July 8, 1858.

Editors Chicago Daily Press and Tribune:

Being a subscriber of your most valuable paper, and withal a grain dealer, I am desirous of saying a few words through your columns in regard to the beauties of the present system of inspection of grain used in your city, and while I am decidedly in favor of Chicago as a grain market, I must say that the present system of inspection is well calculated to drive the grain, particularly corn, away from your city to Saint Louis. Having shipped considerable corn of different qualities, from that which was almost worthless to that which was perfectly dry and sound, I find it goes almost invariably as "Rejected Corn" in your mart, and consequently the only corn on which any money could be made was the most worthless trash I could buy for merely nothing, which would bring precisely as much in Chicago as the best corn. Some few days ago I purchased a car load of corn of one man, and a brighter, sounder, cleaner lot of corn, I venture to say, never was shipped on the C., B. & Q. Railroad, and the same corn was inspected as Rejected Corn, and sold accordingly, while another lot not as good by considerable, inspected No. 2 Corn. The inspection of wheat is causing equally as much trouble in this section, as it makes no difference how good the wheat sent is, it goes as No. 2, except in a few instances, where the poorest shipped has sold as No. 1. Now, Mr. Editor, we do not wish to be always finding fault, but we must and will ask for fair play on both sides, and are willing grain should be sold according to its real merits, and not according to the judgment of inspectors who of late have either shown themselves wholly unfit for their position, or too dishonest to do their duty. We are well aware of the difficulties arising at this hot season of the year to interfere with grain inspection, but know enough about our business to know that corn which is perfectly dry and sound will not heat by shipping from here to Chicago, even in the heated weather. If this state of things is to be sustained in your city, you will find your receipts of grain, corn in particular, falling off very rapidly, while St. Louis will be gathering laurels at your expense. I for one shall ship no more good corn to Chicago; if you prefer rotten corn, we can send it along at a good profit, but good corn must go to St. Louis, where it will sell according to quality and merit. We regret that this state of things exists, as it is much easier and cheaper to ship to Chicago, but the various results of inspection tell too plainly that we must do it at our own expense and hazard, under the present system of inspection.

Yours truly, A SUBSCRIBER.

OUR EXCHANGES ON THE CROPS.

From the Hillsboro' (Ill.) Herald, 10th.

A general complaint exists among the farmers, so far as we have heard through the county, on the ground of rust in the oats. Such a thing has never been known to exist in this part of the State. Our oldest farmers tell us that they never knew before of oats being affected by the rust. The extent of the injury cannot be judged at present, but the accounts which reach us are anything but favorable for a good crop.

Portions of many fields of wheat have been left without cutting, being so much affected by the rust as not to pay for harvesting, and much of the wheat that has been harvested will not pay the expense, for the same reason. Occasionally we hear of a field that has turned out to the best of expectations, and we have no doubt that a greater yield will be found to have been produced in some instances than ever before—showing a greater quantity to the acre. When the threshing is over, we hope the farmers will give us the figures.

The weather has continued dry during the past week. We hear of no showers in the vicinity. The atmosphere, however, seems perfectly pure and healthy, and free from malaria.

From the Alton Democrat, 9th.

Wheat cutting is ended, in this region. From every quarter we hear of a good yield—the heads however being short, while the straw is very heavy. As the harvest progresses northward, beyond Sangamon county, we hear other accounts. The weather has there caused much injury by the rust and fly. Many large fields of wheat are not worth cutting; and, what is quite unusual, adjoining out fields are also badly affected by these causes.

The oat harvest is now in progress in this vicinity; is an excellent crop. The dry weather is using up the potato patches sadly. We have Hungarian grass growing, now standing nearly six feet high upon an average. It is of tremendous growth, and if live stock relish it, as is stated, and it can be cured easily and saved, like timothy, it is the hay crop to raise.

THE EXCURSION.—The steamer Planet, which is to take the place of the Lady Elgin in the excursion to Lake Superior, arrived from Milwaukie yesterday morning. She has been very handsomely fitted up for the trip, being furnished with all the comforts of a first-class hotel. The excursionists cannot fail to enjoy the trip, so perfect are all the arrangements. Capt. Tompkins and the whole crew of the Elgin, are to be transferred to the Planet, which will thus be manned by experienced men, and, will add to the pleasure and safety of the trip. The time of departing has been deferred one day, and not until to-morrow evening will the party leave.

LEAKY.—By a telegraphic dispatch we learn that the brig Sultan, which left here a day or two since, put in at Milwaukee leaking. Part of her cargo will have to be discharged.

AGROUND.—The schooner A. E. Hart, bound down with a cargo of wheat, is aground at the head of Elk Island. A tug is working at her.—Detroit Trib., 10th.

FEVER AND AGUE

Cured without Arsenic or Quinine!

DR. LEEDS' QUININE SUBSTITUTE, or NERVE TONIC, is a positive cure for

Chills and Fever,

And all diseases arising from derangement of the Nervous System, and very successful in preventing

YELLOW, PANAMA AND CHAGRES FEVERS.

The recipe was discovered by a regularly graduated physician, and is, therefore, entitled to the same confidence as any other physician's prescription; a single trial will prove its efficacy. One bottle, in ordinary cases of Fever and Ague, will effect a cure. All that is asked is a fair trial. All who have used it speak loudly in its favor. Read the circular.

HEALTH! GRACE!! AND BEAUTY!!

Conferred on the Ladies by wearing

DOUGLAS & SHERWOOD'S

CELEBRATED SKIRTS.

THE UNPARALLELED SUCCESS OF the NEW EXPANSION SKIRT (120,000 of which have been sold during the last four months) has induced the manufacturers to make arrangements that will enable them to produce 100 dozens (2,400) PER DAY during the months of June, July and August.

They also call attention to their NEW LINEN SUPERIOR SKIRT, for traveling, which is receiving universal commendation from the Ladies.

They are the sole proprietors of the ONLY "PATENT ADJUSTABLE BUSTLE" in use. Beware of the many imitations offered in the market, as they are all either infringements of our patent, or worthless.

They also manufacture over 70 other different styles, WITH and WITHOUT the "Patent Adjustable Bustle."

These skirts have been recommended by the HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITY as being THE BEST ARTICLE FOR LADIES USE THAT HAS EVER BEEN OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC. None genuine unless stamped DOUGLAS & SHERWOOD, Manufacturers, New York.

For sale throughout the United States and Canadas.

NOTICE—THE PAST EIGHTEEN MONTHS' experience has given the citizens of Chicago ample proof that the soap process of cleansing gentlemen's clothes will not do, as practised by those inexperienced in the business. The fact of the matter is this, that unless your coats, vests and pants are dyed, cleaned and neatly repaired by men skilled in their vocation, they had far better never be touched at all—but when they are operated upon by experienced workmen, it is certainly a great saving to the community at large, at the same time conducing much to the bodily comfort. Now, gentlemen, all of you that know the thing, know enough by this time to be fully convinced that the only true and reliable source of having your coats, vests and pants cleaned, neatly repaired and made to look like new, is by COOK & McLAIN'S Chemical process. It certainly does remove every spot of grease, paint, wax and tar, together with all blemishes and impurities to which such garments are liable. The spots are warranted not to reappear, as a beautiful finished lustre is put on as when first new.

Gentlemen, call at COOK & McLAIN'S and look at specimens of their coat dressing. If they fail to please you, no charge will be made.

Remember COOK & McLAIN, 96 Dearborn street, south of the Post Office. ap 10 '56 ly is IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS ON THE OCEAN, LAKE OR RIVER.

Bunker's Patent Life Preserver.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICE.

The records of disasters arising from shipwreck, fire and foundering at sea, show an alarming loss of life from the want of proper facilities in times of emergency, for the saving of passengers and crew. Life Boats become swamped in LAUNCHING, and LIFE PRESERVERS (so miscalled) useless from age, adaptability, or lacking the requisite essentials, and often placed on board complying with the letter of the law, while the spirit of it is entirely overlooked, are facts discovered when the danger is over and disaster and death ensued.

Humanity alone demands that such a state of things should not exist; and while the undersigned would appeal to ship-owners to supply their vessels with an article which has received the highest testimonials of merit from persons of undoubted standing and judgment, he would also urge on every individual embarking on ship or steamer, that a Life Preserver form a portion of their personal baggage. Occupying but little room when not in use, they are adjustable in the space of half a minute, and form a complete protection to the most vital portion of the body, and when once on, need no further attention or care.

Possessing great Buoyant Power, they leave the limbs at perfect freedom. For ladies and children, they are perhaps the only article which combines every requisite for preservation, and cannot fail to give confidence to the most timed, however dangerous may be the emergency. They are not affected by heat or cold, and with ordinary care are indestructible. For surf-bathing and wrecking purposes they are unequaled. The undersigned solicits the attention of the public to this article, at the depot of the Emporium, 167 Broadway, New York.

LEGAL NOTICES.

MORTGAGE NOTICE.—WHEREAS, CHENEY Reed and C. Langdon Watkins, on purchasing from Thomas B. Bryan and Jennie B. Bryan his wife, the North half (½) of lot No. four, (4) in block No. fifteen (15) of the Fort Dearborn Addition to Chicago, being twenty four feet front and extending back westwardly at that uniform width to the alley in the centre of the block, as per Deed, Dated March 25th, A. D. 1856, took and received said conveyance from said Bryan and wife, with an express provision contained in the aforesaid Deed, as subject to a certain trust deed of and upon the same premises which said Bryan and wife had previously on the 15th day of April, A. D. 1855, given and executed to secure the payment to Andrew Wylie, Jr., of the sum of fifty-six hundred dollars, due upon four certain promissory notes of said T. B. Bryan, bearing even date with said trust deed made by said Bryan and wife to said Wylie, all of said notes payable to the order of said Andrew Wylie, Jr., at the Bank of the Metropolis, D. C., three of the same being for the sum of four hundred dollars each, one due and payable on the 15th day of October then next, (1855,) one on the 15th of April A. D. 1857, and one on the 15th of April following, viz. A. D. 1858, and the fourth being for four thousand four hundred dollars payable April 15th A. D. 1859, all of which said notes except the first of said three several notes of four hundred dollars each (which is stated in the deed of said Bryan and wife to said Reed & Watkins to have been previously paid) the said Reed & Watkins by the express terms of said deed of purchase assumed and agreed to pay and return cancelled to said Bryan.

And whereas default has been made in the payment of the third or last named of said four hundred dollar notes, being the note above recited due and payable by the terms thereof on the 15th day of April A. D. 1858.

And whereas, also, in consequence of said default last above specified, by an express provision contained in said trust deed, the said last named of the four notes above recited became immediately due and payable on said default, being the note for the sum of four thousand four hundred dollars, which remains yet unpaid, making together with said other note last previously mentioned, the aggregate of payments in default, by non-payment either by said Bryan the maker, or by said Reed & Watkins, purchasers under him on their assumption aforesaid, to the amount of four thousand and eight hundred dollars on the said 15th day of April, A. D. 1858.

Notice, is therefore hereby given, that by virtue of a power of sale contained in said trust deed executed, by said Bryan and wife to said Andrew Wylie, Jr., and in order to raise the amount remaining unpaid as aforesaid, upon the two unpaid notes aforesaid, secured by said trust deed, and assumed to be paid by said Reed & Watkins as aforesaid, to wit; the sum of four thousand eight hundred dollars, with costs and expenses, or so much thereof as may remain after allowing and deducting therefrom interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum on the sum of four thousand dollars from the day of sale hereinafter mentioned to the 15th day of April 1859, the premises above and in the said Trust Deed described, to wit: "The north half (½) of Lot No. four (4), in Block No. fifteen (15), of the Fort Dearborn Addition to Chicago," will be sold at public auction or vendue to the highest bidder for cash, at the north front door of the Court House, in the city of Chicago on the Seventeenth Day of July next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, and a deed in fee executed thereupon to the purchaser. STATE OF ILLINOIS, COUNTY OF COOK ss. Cook County Court of Common Pleas, June Special Term, 1858. Robert Daggett vs. Jane Gray, Mary Price, Lewis Price, Esther Matthews, Daniel Matthews, Reese Gray, Betsey Crimmins and Patrick Crimmins.—In chancery. Affidavit of the non-residence of Jane Gray, Mary Price, Lewis Price, Esther Matthews, Daniel Matthews and Reese Gray, defendants above named, having been filed in the office of the Clerk of said Cook County Court of Common Pleas, Notice is hereby given to the said Jane Gray, Mary Price, Lewis Price, Esther Matthews, Daniel Matthews and Resse Gray that the complainant, filed his bill of complaint in said Court, on the Chancery side thereof, on the 17th day of June 1858, and that a summons thereupon issued out of said Court against said defendants, returnable on the second Monday of Sept. next, (1858,) as is by law required.

Now, unless you, the said Jane Gray, Mary Price, Lewis Price, Esther Matthews, Daniel Matthews and Reese Gray, shall personally be and appear before said Cook County Court of Common Pleas of Cook county, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be holden at Chicago, in said county, on the second Tuesday of September, 1858, and plead, answer or demur to the said complainants' bill of complaint, the same and the matters and things therein charged and stated will be taken as confessed, and a decree entered against you according to the prayer of said bill. MORTGAGEE'S SALE.—WHEREAS, JOHN D. M Carr, by his indenture of mortgage bearing date the twelfth day of February, A. D 1858, did convey to the undersigned the premises hereinafter described to secure the payment of three certain promissory notes, made by Watson Carr to the undersigned, dated May 1st, A D 1857—one for the sum of thirteen hundred and twenty-seven and 50-100 dollars ($1327 50 100), due one year from date; one for the sum of twelve hundred and sixty ($1260), due two years from date; and one for the sum of eleven hundred and ninety-two and 50-100 dollars ($1192 50-100), due three years from the date thereof, being a portion of the purchase money on said premises. And whereas it is provided in and by said mortgage, that if default be made in the payment of said promissory notes either of principal or of interest on the day or days whereon the same shall become due and payable, then the whole of said principal and interest secured by said notes shall thereon become immediately due and payable, and that the undersigned, his heirs, executors, administrators or assignees, after publishing a notice in a newspaper printed in the city of Chicago, Illinois, for thirty days before the day of such sale, may sell the said premises and all right and equity of redemption of the said John D. M. Carr, his heirs and assignees in the same, at public auction, at the Court House door in the said city of Chicago, to the highest bidder for cash, at the time mentioned in said notice of sale; and whereas default has been made in the payment of the said first-mentioned promissory note, due on the 1st day of May, A. D. 1858, for the sum of thirteen hundred and twenty-seven and 50-100 dollars.

Now, therefore, public notice is hereby given that the undersigned, by virtue of the power given in said mortgage, will on THURSDAY, the 5th day of August, A. D. 1858, at three o'clock P. M., sell at public auction at the north door of the Court House in the city of Chicago, County of Cook, and state of Illinois, to the highest bidder for cash, the real estate and all the equity of redemption of the said John D. M. Carr, to the same described in said mortgage, lying and being in the County of Cook, and State of Illinois, to wit:—Part of the west half of the southwest quarter of Section No. ten (10), in Township No. thirty-eight (38) north, Range No. fourteen (14) east, of the third Principal Meridian, containing ten (10) acres more or less, and bounded as follows, viz: commencing on the half quarter Section Line of said Section ten (10), fifty-three (53) rods south of the centre stake standing on the north line of said southwest quarter of Section ten (10), thence west forty (40) rods, thence south twenty-seven (27) rods, thence west forty (40) rods to the west line of said quarter Section, being the centre of State street, thence south along the centre of State street six and one-half rods, thence east eighty (80) rods, thence north thirty-three and one-half (33½) rods to the place of beginning, for the purposes in said mortgage mentioned and set forth. LEGAL NOTICES.

ASSIGNEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE. THE undersigned assignees of Chas. Cleaver are now prepared to sell some of the most desirable residence property in the immediate vicinity of Chicago and at prices that cannot fail to attract attention from parties desirous of purchasing.

The property consists of a large number of lots in the charming suburban village of Cleaverville on the shore of Lake Michigan, south of Chicago and only four miles from the Court House.

Thirty lots in block seven (7) section five (5) in the city of Chicago and near Ward's extensive rolling mills.

Several lots on the west side.

Two hundred acres of heavy timbered land 16 miles from Chicago.

Farm lands in Will and Kane Counties, Illinois.

Forty acres in Sheboygan County, Wisconsin; together with several lots in the cities of Henry, Fulton and Dubuque.

It is the desire of the assignees to relieve the estate, at once, of all embarrassments, and to this end will offer all or any portion of these lots or lands at very great bargains in order to effect sales, and if a sufficient sum is not realized therefrom, before the twenty-third day of September, they will be offered at public auction.

A satisfactory title will be given and terms easy.

For further particulars apply to or address D. Hess, or Chas Cleaver, Agent, at the office of the Illinois Stone Co., corner Wells and Taylor streets, Chicago.

All persons indebted to said C. Cleaver are requested to make immediate payment as above.

MORTGAGE SALE.

WHEREAS JOHN APEL, OF THE CITY of Chicago, county of Cook and State of Illinois, did on the twentieth day of August, A. D. 1855, execute and deliver to George K. Shoenberger, of the city of Cincinnati, and State of Ohio three promissory notes, payable to the order of the said George K. Shoenberger, for the sum of two thousand dollars each, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent., payable annually—the first of said notes becoming due and payable on the fifteenth day of September, A. D. 1856; the second payable on the fifteenth day of September, A. D. 1857; and the third payable on the fifteenth day of September, A. D. 1858. And, whereas also on the said twentieth day of August, A. D. 1855, the said John Apel, for the better securing the payment of the said sums of money according to the tenor and effect of the said promissory notes, executed and delivered to the said George K. Shoenberger a mortgage deed of the following described tract of land, situated in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, viz: That certain tract of land known as the Guthrie farm, and described as follows, viz: commencing at a point twenty-seven (27) rods north from the south-west corner of Section twenty-seven (27), in Township forty-one (41) north, Range twelve (12), east; running thence east one hundred and sixty (160) rods, thence north eighty (80) rods, thence west eighty (80) rods, thence north fifty-three (53) rods, thence west three hundred and twenty (320) rods, thence south eighty (80) rods, thence east eighty (80) rods, thence south one hundred and sixty (160) rods, thence east eighty (80) rods, thence north one hundred and seven (107) rods, thence east eighty (80) rods to the place of beginning; which said deed of mortgage is recorded in book 21 of mortgages, page 461 of the Records of Real Estate Conveyances in the said county of Cook. And whereas, also, default has been made by the said John Apel in the payment of the two last mentioned of the said promissory notes.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises and by virtue of a power of sale contained in the aforesaid mortgage deed, public notice is hereby given by me, the said George K. Shoenberger, that the said premises and all right and equity of redemption of the said John Apel therein, will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, at the north door of the Court House in the said city of Chicago, on the fourteenth day of July, A. D. 1858, at ten o'clock A. M., to satisfy the amount now due me by virtue of the said notes and the said mortgage, and all costs and expenses incurred in advertising and selling said premises. MORTGAGE SALE.

WHEREAS GEO. E. HOYT EXECUTED to Wm McCully & Co., on the 24th day of December, A.D., 1857, a certain promissory note at four months from date, for the sum of two hundred and seventy-four and twenty-three one-hundredths dollars ($274 23-100), with interest at ten per cent. per annum.

And, whereas the said Geo. E. Hoyt and Alicia his wife, at said time, for the better securing the payment of said promissory note, executed to the said Wm. McCully & Co., a mortgage deed of the following described piece or parcel of land situated in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, described as follows, viz: Lot number two (2), in block number two (2), in Hoyt's subdivision of the north half of the north-east quarter of section twenty-four (24), in township thirty-eight (38), north range fourteen (14), east of the third principal meridian.

And, whereas the said Geo. E. Hoyt has made default in the payment of the said promissory note.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the foregoing, and by virtue of a power of sale contained in said mortgage deed, public notice is hereby given that we shall sell the said premises described in said mortgage, and all right and equity of redemption of the said George E. Hoyt and wife, their heirs and assigns thereto, at public auction, at the north door of the Court House, in the city of Chicago, on the twentieth day of July, A.D., 1858, at ten o'clock A. TRUSTEES SALE.—WHEREAS, BY A CERTAIN Trust Deed, dated the first day of July, A. D. 1856, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Cook County, in the State of Illinois, in Book No. 59 of Deeds, Page No. 592, Starr Foot and Terressa P. Foot, of the city of Chicago, and James H. Collins, of the same place, Trustees of the said Starr Foot and Terresa P., his wife, parties of the first part, did grant, bargain, sell, alien, release and convey to Erastus S. Williams, of the city of Chicago, the following described premises, situate, lying and being in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, to wit: That part of Lot four (4), in Block one hundred and seventeen (117), School Section Addition to Chicago, described as follows: Commencing at a point one hundred and twenty feet north of the southeast corner of said lot, as originally laid out, thence running north along the west line of Clark street to the northeast corner of said lot four, thence west along the south line of Monroe street to the northwest corner of said lot, thence south on the west line of said lot to a point one hundred and twenty feet, and north from the southwest corner of said lot, thence east to the point of beginning, intending to convey all that part of lot four not previously conveyed, being seventy-eight and one half feet, more or less, on Clark street, and ninety feet on Monroe. Said conveyance being made to secure the payment of a certain Note made by Starr Foot, and described as follows, viz: and of even tenor and date of said Trust Deed, for the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000), and drawing interest, due and payable five years after the date thereof, and made payable to Sylvester Marsh or order, and which said Note has been duly assigned by the said Sylvester Marsh. And, whereas, it is provided in said Trust Deed in case default shall be made in the payment of the said Note, by the said Starr Foot, that then, on application of the legal holder of said Note, the said grantor in said Trust Deed, after having first given ten days notice of the sale of said premises by publishing the same in the nearest newspaper printed in the State of Illinois, where said premises are situated, shall and may sell said premises or any portion thereof, and all right and equity of redemption of the grantors, Starr Foot, Terressa, his wife, and James H. Collins, Trustee, &c., their heirs or assigns therein, at public sale, at such hour and place as said party of the second part shall appoint. And, whereas, default having been made in the payment of the Note aforesaid:

Now, therefore, public notice is hereby given that on the application of Amos G. Throop, the legal holder of said Note, and Assignee of Sylvester Marsh, in pursuance of the authority in me vested by the said grantors in said Trust Deed mentioned, I shall, on the 26th day of July, A. D. 1858, sell the real estate aforesaid at public auction, at north door of the Court House, in the city of Chicago, at 10 o'clock A. M., to the highest and best bidder for cash in hands, for the purposes mentioned in said Deed of Trust. ERASTUS S. WILLIAMS, Trustee.

The County Convention.

The Convention yesterday, we are gratif to say, passed off in a manner highly cred able to those who participated in its delibe tions. The friends of the opposing candida were zealous in their efforts to advance t interests of their respective favorites, but was done in order and with good feeling. the slavery propagandists have at any ti indulged the expectation that the contest the preliminary Conventions would stir animosities in the Republican ranks, destin to weaken the party in the canvass, they now undeceived. The friends of both Arnold and Mr. Farnsworth stated expres that whatever might be their personal pref ences, the contest among themselves wou end with the Dixon Convention. After t all their energies would be devoted to t election of the nominee and to the defeat their political opponents.

The Republicans of Cook have now sign fied their favorite, and, should he receive t nomination of the Dixon Convention, th will give him a rousing majority; at the sa time, it is proper to say, they will cheerfu abide the result of the Convention, and present an unbroken phalanx in support of nominee, whether the choice fall upon Arnold or either of the other gentlemen s ken of for the nomination.
